I finally can review this book!! I search this book like millions way long. i read Girl Talk when i was in junior high. I miss the gang, Sabrina, Katie, Randy and Allison. The book so attracted my heart as a teen. So thanks for this book i rewrite again more seriously and intensively. I want read all the series, but it must be difficult to find them. :(

Sheila Read says

when I was a kid I had a lot of these books it's funny that I found these books. they were like reading a diary

Martina Fuskova says

all books from this serial were with me in my childhood and puberty-time ;) and in that time it was great. One time...I will read it with my daughters
