Whispering Stories says

Mitzi: Tale of a Dog, is a children's story told from the point of view of Mitzi, who is an 18 year old, German shepherd and boxer cross.

Mitzi lives with her mum and dad, Dennis and Carolyn. That hasn't always been the case though, as Dennis bought Mitzi when she was 5 years old. She weighed just 35 pounds, and had been mistreated for a long time.

Dennis is an ex serviceman with the K9 department, so he knew how to train dogs efficiently, with love and hugs and not treats. Mitzi was a model pupil, and learned quickly how to sit, lie down etc.

Mitzi loves her life, even though she is getting old now and has arthritis and is deaf. She gets lots of love and attention from her favourite people in the world, her mum and dad.

The tale is a wonderful story of how one dog went from being sad, lonely and hurt, to being the happiest dog in the world. I love that the book is told from Mitzi's point of view, so you get to hear just how Mitzi feels.

The book will teach children that with a lot of love, time, and friendliness, that they could make someone very happy, whether that be a dog or a human.

Sarah says

Mitzi: Tale of a Dog is a delightful tale of love and companionship. Told from the perspective of Mitzi, a beloved dog, this timeline of her life is simply written. Though a sweet tale of love, it is also a teaching tale; this story teaches the responsibilities of having and caring for a pet.
