THIS is an amazing book! One of my fave (if not my fave) interior design/decorating books I have! KariAnne Wood, author of So Close To Amazing, has written her first, all-inclusive decorating and design book. With a quick and sweet sense of humor, KariAnne offers plenty of advice and easy tutorials on how to create a curated home, from the ceiling to the floor! And, if that's not enough, the illustrations by Michal Sparks are simply adorable (I never get tired of looking at them... I see something new every time!) One other thing, the extra-special details of this book, the inside storage pockets and elastic book-mark, just make my heart go pitter-patter! This book is one I will use for years to come!

I really liked this DIY Home Planner and it covers a wide variety of topics. This book contains lots of information about things such as space planning, paint colors, flooring, lighting and many more. The book is full of lists, lots of pages where you can write down measurements and notes, photographs and colorful illustrations. The book also goes over things like patterns, window treatment options, fabrics and wall decorations. There are a bunch of possible activities you can do throughout this book and there are a bunch of cut out options in the back of the book to help with space planning. Overall, this was a great book and it covers all the basics about decorating or updating your home.

Thank you to the publisher, Harvest House Publishers, for sending me a review copy of this book!

This is a fantastic book for those who are doing a total make-over of their home or just making some changes here and there. It's packed full of information that is so helpful!

The book is broken into areas for space planning, wall treatments, paint colors, floor treatments and more! I love that each section goes into great detail about the topic. For instance, in the floor treatment area, she has a questionnaire that asks all about the room you are going to be putting the flooring in. What will the room be used for, who will use it, etc. This helps us to make the right choice for that room. The whole book is like this. Helping us make the right choices for each room based on what it will be used for.

The window treatment section was really helpful to me. She shares about different types but I really learned a lot from what type of rod you should use for curtains. I had no idea that I should be careful about the type of rod and this helped me in choosing the right one for my bedroom.

There are pockets in the inside covers for saving all those great ideas or paint chips you want to keep in one place, plus the book has a cord to keep it closed. This is fantastic for keeping all those ideas in one place. You can also sketch out how you want your room to look on the pages inside.

I love this book! I learned so much from it and love that I can keep everything together for my different ideas for my home. I highly recommend it for anyone that is wanting to work on their home or for their decorating ideas. I give it 5 out of 5 stars.

If you are a do-it-yourselfer who needs a bit of hand holding, as do I, then this is the book for you. KariAnne will take you step-by-step through the process of planning a room, from flooring to lighting. She includes the little facts to be remembered like how large the area rug should be or how to choose the correct curtain rod for your space as well as advice on the larger choices that one makes when designing a room. Best of all, KariAnne reminds you to have fun with the process and to believe in yourself. The book is beautifully illustrated and would make a lovely housewarming gift, but buy a copy for yourself as well.

A wonderful working manual in how to decorate your home with confidence. While some decorating books seem dated over time, I think this is a resource you can use for years to come. It is full of practical ideas...not "House Beautiful" unachievable ones.

This planner is a completely fun combination of words and inspiration and beautiful sketches and real life photographs and colors and pages and tips and ideas for making your home YOURS!

The table of contents is so bright and colorful and I love the pictures it uses.

There are pages to sketch and draw and place your furniture etc in your room. The back of the planner contains a page of furniture cut-outs to try out different layouts.

There's a sturdy pocket flap on the inside cover AND the back cover to tuck in fabric scraps and notes and paint strips and any and all lists you want to keep handy for your home and projects. I love this detail and idea for the book.

My Review:

These days everyone and their brother is into planners. Planners for everything whether it is for a person's daily activities or its for organizing different ideas such is the case with this neat, little book. The DIY Home Planner is a book that helps you decorate your home. A great way to map out what you would like to do around the home. To me, its a great idea to use a book like this because for me I need to write everything down in order to organize it and with this book you can do just that.

The author gives you many organizing and decorating tips but she also gives you space in order to grid things out. So if you would like to map out your living room space she gives you some grid paper to do just that. She takes you through every aspect of the decorating world like for example discussing flooring she talks about the different types and pro's and con's of each.

This is the perfect planner to take everywhere with you as you design your space. It has everything!
