Forever Yours - Part Four Deila Longford

Rose Peterson has changed in so many ways since she met Dalton Clark. But the biggest change is that she is about to become a vampire. Rose's love for Dalton consumed her, and she wasn't prepared to wait for him to turn her. So Rose took matters into her own hands, and she sought the help of Nicholas, Dalton's somewhat dangerous Brother. How will Dalton react when Rose wakes up? And what kind of vampire will Rose be? How will their story end? Will it be a happily ever after? Or an eternity of misery?

~ Rose ~ ?Desert Rose✿ says

This book killed everything the third installment fixed for me. Just when I had hope from the third book, this one came along and made me cringe.

I can honestly say, this isn't a story I enjoyed reading, and it's not one I'd recommend. Along with all the same editing mistakes (spell-checker, people, come on! Sheesh...) the story became completely cliche, lost all plot originality (even had the running through the woods scene from Twilight), and the ending was not one I enjoyed.

I'm glad it's over...

Laura Wolf says

Paged through this to the end. Notice I never mention anything about the characters because they are so bad and forgettable they don't deserve mentioning. All these books should have been 1. For nothing better than to not have taken up the space of 4. My nomination for Sorriest series ever.

Selina says

I liked this book the most compared to the others of the serie. I liked the way it ends. But it wasn't a very good serie, it just was a little poorly written.

AngelinaT says

I didn't enjoy this series at all. I couldn't get into the story at all. The storyline was weak and too fast paced. I felt nothing for any of the characters either.

Elaine says

these books were awesome. they show what true love are about. just wonderful
