The book is a compilation of some of Gulzar's poetry. Gulzar's songs, Gulzar's dialogues, Gulzar's films, all have one quality-they carry the "rasa" of poetry because basically he remains a poet.

Gulzar definitely has a way with words. We all are witnesses of some of his legendary creations in past few decades so obviously I had high expectations from this but I must say the experience was a bit Underwhelming. Out of those 100+ poems and 80-odd Gazals and Trivenis only a few were good enough to make a lasting impact. I have read quite a lot of Gulzar Sahab and I'll not rate this as one of his best collection, still definitely worth a read.

Ek sabab marne ka, ek talab jeene ki, Chaand pukhraj ka, raat pashmine ki -A reason to die, a craving to live, A topaz moon, a warm, cosy night - What else can be said about Gulzar's poetry. He weaves a beautiful web of imagery with his poems where the reader is enthralled holding on to his every word.

Vasant says

You're the best Gulzar saheb... best feeling when i'm alone or after midnight before going to bed, and Gulzar's Ghazals.

Pushkar Joshi says

Anusmita Mazumder says

Enchanting as expected, Gulzar is definitely a master of words. Words which make you lifeless and full of life at once. The empathy it creates takes you to every place he has travelled and every skin he has been underneath.. Loved reading this piece! :)

This book can't be read and done with. He has the ability to sprinkle magic to the most mundane objects and leave you in awe of his craft. His poems remain in thoughts, for long.
I will keep coming back to this profound experience.

Naveen Verma says

There isn't anything left to say which haven't been said about Gulzar sahab. I have been waiting to get my hands on something written by him since a very long time and finally I got it. The way he picks and uses the words of different languages is mesmerizing. He doesn't write a poem or a she'r or ghazal, he paints with words.
