A Hustler's Heaven In Hiding B. Love

Laikynn Marie James is a hustler. She has been able to convince men to do just about anything, except love her. After spending seven years in another country and toxic relationship, Laikynn returns to the United States with two goals in mind – to start working legally and to fall in love and start her own family. The second she returns, she runs into a man that could very well be capable of giving her the love she desires, but he's a part of the lifestyle Laikynn is desperately trying to get away from.

Growing up in foster care led Pharaoh and his older brother to a life of crime. He hasn't held much value for love or women for that matter, only after what they can give to satisfy him. On his way out of the country, he runs into a woman that haunts his thoughts and dreams, driving him to find her no matter the cost.

After crossing paths a few times, Pharaoh and Laikynn are convinced fate is trying to pull them together. Their union seems to be beyond their control. And it also seems as if they have no control over whether they become each other's peace or the downfall that takes them both out permanently. Love becomes the goal for them both, but common enemies have placed targets on their backs. Will they be able to go legit and let their relationship flourish, or will they find their hearts aching, breaking, and stopping all in the name of love?

Great story

I would love a spin-off with Caesar and Angel. I live the way that Pharoah took care of Laikynn. He loved her with his whole heart and he was honest with her even when he tricked off with Daneli. I can't wait to read more about them. You never disappoint with your writing skills. I'm so glad that she didn't try to seek her mother out but instead got her brother and his family in turn. I can't wait till the next book drops!

You did it again!

I loved it! It was a beautiful story. I loved that there wasn't any type of tug of war between them. They both gave into their love quickly and stood with each other. Please give us an update on Lai and Pharaoh with a spin off about Caesar and Angel! I'll be reading just like every other book of yours.

Man I couldn't put this down. Laikynn sought out to find herself, leave what was no longer an interest, and find love which she did. I really liked what she built with Pharaoh. Pharaoh should've listened to Caesar about Daniela because she brought more problems than a little bit. It was bad enough Angel had to find out Caesar's secret the way she did but knowing how far Diablo was willing to go didn't make things better. Pharaoh succeeded in giving Laikynn what she was missing in her life and in return he inspired her to put her fears aside and let him hear her work. I would definitely love for Caesar and Angel to get their own story and be able to hear more of what's going on between Laikynn and Pharaoh.

I need a Pharaoh in my life!

I loved this book from the beginning. Laikynn knew what she wanted once she set her mind to it. Pharoah wasn't prepared for the love that Laikynn brought into his life, but his heart wouldn't let him leave it alone. The flow of the book was great. Caesar and Angel were made for each other, but obstacles were constantly being thrown at them. This book was the perfect mix of Urban and Romance. Again this author came through with some ??.

Hell yeah to a doing a spin off on Ceasar and Angel

Pharoah was truly a king! He showed it in the way that he loved, protected, and cared for Laikynn. When he found the picture of her father to just doing whatever necessary to make sure that she was loved and felt whole again made me fall in love with him as well. That ending was so deep!! The poems were so amazing and deep and spiritual all at the same damn time!! I was surprised that Tatum backed off the way that he did. I thought he'd be more of a problem than he ended up being. This was a very good story!! Hopefully others vote for a spinoff for Ceasar and Angel because even though they are struggling in their marriage, I'm rooting for them!!

This is straight ?. Your writing has a way of touching my soul. Your words seers straight to my heart. The love between your characters is off the chain. It's that everlasting love. Man Laikynn and Pharoah are the best couple so far. Both were so broken but healed each other in the most precious and loving way. If a person didn't believe in love and read your books Hunny you would definitely make them one. I will definitely recommend. This book was heartwarming. I definitely need that spin-off for Angel and Ceaser. The def have a story to tell.

Heaven

First of all, tell Pharaoh I'm looking for him! Now, what we're not going to do is act like we didn't notice him all in Enterprise with his shirt off, trying to give it to the child, ok! He slick wanted her to see what he was working with anyway. I ain't lyin'. Y'all know this, hence the reason y'all quiet. All that boobody in the pages. Don't act like y'all didn't get excited and thrill in believing that Diablo's see was offed. Don't play with me like that. Whew Chile! I want part 2. And if Ceez cause Angel to leave him, I'm going to beat the breaks off of him. Periodt! B. Love ain't playing with y'all. I'm so proud . Kudos to you! 5Star reading.

Enjoyed

This read was interesting reason for me saying that is because it wasn't long but I felt it gave you enough to be satisfied. It went into detail about Laikynn childhood also Pharaoh's and the reason for them being the way they are. It also gave you reasons why they were made for each other without a doubt. I would love to know more about Ceaser and Angel's relationship and what decisions that she made as far as her relationship goes and would love to be updated with Pharaoh and Laikynn and her growing family in finding her brother.

Laikynn was dealt a rough had not having the love from her mother and loving her father but losing him to the streets. She leaves a man that she isn't in love with only wants her for what she brings to the table. Laikynn wants a family and love and she finds that In Pharaoh. I would love to hear the complete story of Angel and Caesar with updates on Pharaoh and Laikynn future.#0850

What an awesome and inspiring read! I love the "completeness at first sight." This was beyond love and lust. It's the feeling of knowing if you have that someone in your corner, along with God, all is well with the world. This is Laiklyn and Pharoah. I definitely need Caesar and Angela story and an update on Laiklyn and Pharoah . If you love "Love" and an all around feel good story, please 1-click!

Loved it!!!! ????

Omg!!!! This was a great book, I so loved it. I can't wait for the spin-off with Caesar and Angel and to catch up on Laikynn and Pharaoh. I so love how Lai and Pharaoh are all into each other and just have that strong connection. Laikynn has outgrown the life she had with Tatum, she wants more in and from life. In comes Pharaoh. Daniela was throwed off for real, she got what she deserved though, her and her dad Diablo. I can't wait for Angel and Caesar's story and what happened with Whitley? Again I thoroughly enjoyed this story, can't wait to catch up!!!!

Gimme More!!!

This love story was meant to be! I love how even though Laikynn is a baddie in the streets, she was so demure in her personal life. This is often the case for women of " the culture". But, when the right man came along she was able to set aside her baddie persona and yield and submit. And she would not have found him had she not out herself first. B Love always has lessons, lessons, and lessons!!!! I can't wait to read about Angel and Caesar!!!
