Jennifer says

The Teacher's Pet is a super short story written for Tiffany Reisz's fabulous Original Sinners series. It features Nora in her role as dominatrix with one of her female clients: Sheridan. Fans of the short-stories in this series have likely already met Sheridan, the famous actress who needs to let go of everyone's expectations once in a while and enter the zone under Nora's caring hand. Yes, caring. This story again shows how protective and nourishing Nora's role can be as she assesses exactly what her clients need and faithfully gives it to them. Of course Tiffany Reisz gives her readers exactly what they need too as she generously gifts many continued peeks inside this well-loved world.

Note: This particular short story is one of many available at no cost from Ms. Reisz (as of October 2017).

My favorite quote:

"An hour of Nora's time cost her four figures but she considered it worth every penny. She wasn't buying sex. She was buying sanity."

Another freaking story about Nora's glitter cumming pussy. No actual teacher\student here, just role play scene. I think I hate Sheridan.

I adore little Sheridan.

So good. I've read stories with Sheridan before, and this one is right at the top of the list as a great one.
