All the princess books are good books especially if you like the kind of books that are non fiction books that are short and go together well.

My love of reading started when i was young, and it gives me immense pleasure to provide books to Spread the Word Nevada, an organization that passes them on to children in the community. They are a terrific organization supporting an important cause. If your local I encourage you to check them out. For those living further a field, look in your own community, their may already be a similar program in place. And if not, you can always help start one.

Myself, I go out on the weekends and shop thrift store and bulk book lots to rescue books and donate them. Sometimes I'll find a book I remember reading when I was young and will read it again before passing it on.

I don't rate these books using my normal scale, instead I give most of them three stars. This isn't a Criticism of the book, simply my way of rating them as good for children.

Sad that I've finally reached the end to this nostalgic and darling corner of the bookshelf. This arc was really cool, I also love/am totally creeped out by the ideas of mirror worlds. Knowing this is the last book, everything ends so suddenly and I wonder why.

I read a couple of these books when I was a little girl. I really enjoyed them! I used to have a bracelet that came free with one of those books. Had four jewels of the princesses.
