Shortly after meeting him, Bailee is crazy in love with Domino, but who could blame her? He's sexy, possessive, charming, and all about his paper, so what's not to love?

In the first installment, we witnessed everybody from Bailee's sister to Domino's exes, trying to tear their relationship apart, but they were able to remain a team despite it all. In this second installment, secrets and lies come spilling out like a waterfall, and Bailee and Domino will once again have to fight to save their love. Is it worth it?

Of course, Domino and Bailee aren't the ones we'll be keeping up with this time around. Other couples will be introduced, with some flourishing into something beautiful, while others come crashing down as quickly as they surfaced.

This second installment is crazy, but also heartfelt. It'll make you laugh, make you cry, make you think, and make you want to hug your loved ones a bit tighter. Find out how making good love to a bad boy can change a girl's life, for the better, OR for the worse...
