Delightful. Had a smile on my face the whole way through. At first I was thrown off by the idea of a harpy in a romance but she is the daughter of Apollo so that made a little more sense. Great characters and a surprisingly good plot with several layers. Sparkle and Ganymede are front and center as well and who can resist those cosmic troublemakers? This book is an excellent example of why Nina Bangs is one of my favorite authors.

So I kept seeing this author's name everywhere and decided to give her a try. It was too silly for words. I was laughing way too much. Maybe I should have read one of the first in this series, but I'm not so sure. I guess I should have been clued in from the title. You have a Harpy who has issues because she's too beautiful, a wager is made with a sex provoking entity that the Harpy can go each night without making any lustful stares or touches toward anyone, and you've got a werebunny. Need I say more?

I enjoy all of the stories about the Woo Woo Inn. I don't feel like these are the books that I sit down and have to try to read in one sitting though. They don't hold my attention that strongly, but a fun read in the end.

I finally finished this book , I have to admit I did end up liking it though at first I wasn't so sure . I am used to weird things in Paranormal books but this was strange even for me.

What I think my problem was I chose this for a couple of my challenges and I thought it would be a stand alone book. I was wrong I need to go back and read the whole series then maybe I might be able to change my rating .

The Woo Woo Inn is at it again. This time they are looking for a new night manager, and a harpy is looking for a job. Well actually she is looking for a powerful being to take to Hades as her test so she can become a real harpy. She has had a hard time, along with her brother, all their lives to fit in with the other harpies. They both are too beautiful, and where ugliness is a position requirement this is quite the dilemma. Oh, by the way, the world is scheduled to end next Wednesday. To find out how the harpy, gets a job, saves the world, and finds her man, you will have to read this humorous addition to the Woo Woo Inn series.

Amelia-Irene says

This is a part of a series. There are actually two stories going on in this book. There is the "new" story of Daria & Declan, but there is also the story of Ganymede & Sparkle. There are also two tests going on... One that Daria is trying to pass as a Harpie. And one that Ganymede doesn't fully realize that he's taking. In the meantime everyone in residence at the Woo Woo Inn is in for the fight of their lives of good fighting evil and if evil ones the world will disappear as everyone mortal and immortal knows it.

so far, this book is really funny, but depressing at the same time T-T. i'm getting really excited about 2 certain characters that i've just been introduced to, and i have to admit, - who i think these 2 people are - i was thinking of these 2 waaaaay before they were introduced, thinking it'd be funny/awesome if out-of-nowhere that THEY showed up!!!! XD XD can't wait to see what happens!!!!

FUN!

Nina is the best! Others try to imitate her and fail! Witty dialogue, wisecracking, snarky cat and cosmic trouble makers. Pure gold! Great story, romance, luuv scenes??well written and none of her books are formulaic. Your soul and your heart sings from page 1. Others might make more $$$ from their books but hers you will read and re-read over and over, again. I still have some of her original paperbacks. Missed you Nina????????

This was a great read. I love reading Nina Bangs, she never disappoints. Sparkle Stardust and Ganymede are my favorite characters, no matter how YUMMY the vampires are how witty the heroine is, Sparkle and Ganymede somehow manage to steal the show...Enough of them though; Daria, the Harpie that doesn't quite fit...and Declan the yummy Vamp...at my favorite place the Woo Woo Inn, where danger lurks in the dark.

There are shape shifters, humans trying to be vampires and even were-ducks! YUP I said it, WERE-DUCKS, if you want action, and a sex plant, and kitchen that have cooks with attitude and book that will keep you turning the pages then this a definite read.

Natalie says

I really like all the MacKenzie Vampires books by Nina Bangs. She puts a nice, humorous twist on the traditional vampire romance. She mixes hot sex with great character development, a variety of paranormal creatures, the right amount of real humor, action, adventure, and interesting side-stories. BTW, this one made me cry.

They finally started getting pretty good!!! AAANNNDddd!!!! she stops writing this series. humph! go figure. I liked this book even though it took longer for me to read. It had nothing to do with the book of course just a busy life, but everytime I put the book down I had to do a sad sigh! I really did enjoy it.

Jennifer Prescott says

Daria is trying to pass her "Harpy Test", and chooses to take a job at the Woo Woo Inn as night manager. Sparkle Stardust & Ganymede are back at the Inn and Sparkle is looking for a challenge. She decides Daria is the perfect project, and that Declan, a McKenzie Vampire Council member, are suited for each other. Declan is at the Inn to find out why two council members have been killed. He learns an estranged family member has been trying to draw him to the area in order to fulfill a prophecy. The supernatural guests must work together to win the battle soon to erupt. And there's some tension between Sparkle & Ganymede...

Mrs. Badass says

Declan Mackenzie is on the council and send to the Woo Woo Inn to find out who is offing Council Members. What he finds there is a Harpy. Yes, a Harpy. A woman who is in the service of Hades by delivering bad people to death with her vulture wings. She turns half into a vulture. Oh yea, and harpies are supposed to be REALLY Really ugly. Only thing? Daria and her twin brother Kal's dad is Apollo. Yup, a

God. So both of them use magic to make themselves as ugly as they can in order to make rank in the harpy world, where prettiness is bad and ugliness is top notch, this book is fun.

Sparkle and Mead are back and will tug on your heart strings. Yes, even Sparkle and Mead have hearts.
