Warrior of the Myst II Scott McElhaney

There's a rogue Warrior of the Myst out there going by the name of "Ghost" and no one knows just who this dark entity actually is. One thing is certain however – Ghost seeks to kill all who were responsible for the death of King Rigel III several months ago. Unfortunately, Ghost has some curious beliefs regarding that murder – beliefs that suggest that Valhalla's current king, Mercer Knight, may have been responsible for that attack on Castle Mount. How do you battle against a powerful Myst Warrior who believes that they are already dead... merely a ghost of a person who is stuck between the world of the living and the world of the dead?

Clara Butcher says

The first of the Warrior of the Myst books really left me wanting more of Xanxia and Mercer and I really rooted for their relationship as the author has a way with getting the reader invested. I got what I'd asked for. This picks up where the previous book left off, only now there is another person out to steal the throne from the newly established king. And that mystery person seems a little insane while being very dangerous with the sword and the power of the Myst. Action? Check. Romance? Check. Suspense? Check.
