I enjoyed this book because it filled in a space where I would not have been doing anything besides sitting around, waiting for the phone to ring (I was reading this at work - I know not that great, but it was a slow day). I remember really enjoying this one, thinking that it was my favourite out of the Weather fairies and I have to say I think that still may be true. I am excited to read the last book of this series and see what happens (because I have completely forgotten the end).

I am not the target audience for this; eh, it's ok.

So when I was younger, I really liked the Rainbow Magic Fairies series. And at the time, I really wanted to read this series too, but I had only ever read this book and Hayley the Rain Fairy. This is similar to the original Rainbow Magic Fairies series, where the seven weather fairies' magic feathers which control their ability to make weather, are missing. Storm, who controls lightning, is the protagonist of this book. I don't remember much of the story, but it was fairly good, I guess. I only recommend the Weather Fairies series for fans of the original Rainbow Magic books, or young readers.

Our latest foray into the fairy world provided at least a little more intrigue as the girls help their fairy friend in a museum while being chased by a lightning-wielding goblin. Since they are dealing with lightning here and not just flower petals, the danger is a little more intense for the toddler set, but it at least kept my five-year-old engaged and begging to read more.

Rachel and Kirsty are involved in finding the missing feathers that help control weather, and the one they are involved with this time is the one that causes lightning. There's a very funny scene involving a goblin beaten “eaten” by a mechanical model of a dinosaur that's the high point of the story.

Kristine Hansen says

Oooh...this one got a bit scary with a lot more excitement than the previous books. Lightning and dinosaurs and goblins and a lost locket...oh my! Rachel in danger! Oooh...I wish all the books had this much excitement. But could I take it if they did? Wonder what my daughter will say as soon as she's done????

I LOVE THIS BOOK.

Second set in the fairy books. This is in the following school holidays. Rachel comes to stay with Kirsty in the village of Wetherbury. Jack Frost's goblins have stolen the tail weathers from Fairyland's weather-vane rooster and making weather chaos in Fairyland and the village. Miss 4 was very excited waiting for Doodle to speak again!

Miss 4 and I like to explore different books and authors at the library, sometimes around particular topics or themes. We try to get different ones out every week or so; it's fun for both of us to have the variety and to look at a mix of new & favourite authors.

I really liked Storm the Lightning Fairy because I like how her hair sticks out. I wish my hair could look like Storm's, that would be really cool!

Dolly says

This is the sixth of seven books in the "Weather Fairies" series by the group of authors who go by the name Daisy Meadows. It's a fun series, especially for young girls who are starting to read chapter books. Our oldest is addicted and I am encouraging it since I am confident that these books will help her develop a love for reading! She reads them on her own and will sometimes read aloud to me. I have been reading them along with her (at first I was irritated by them, but now they amuse me and they only take about 5 minutes to read). We will discuss the plots, her favorite parts and what we think will happen later in the series.

$hanel says

Storm the lightning fairy is the sixth fairy that Rachel and Kirsty must help find a feather for, this means that it's the lightning feather that they must find. When a loose lightning bolt is going out in Wetherbury this means that Rachel and Kirsty must also help Storm get her lightning bolt back to besides the feather for Doodle. Will Rachel and Kirsty help Storm make the lightning stop in Wetherbury?

Storm needs Rachel and Kristy's help finding the Lightning feather. But it's going to be hard during a thunder storm. They have to go into the museum so they don't get hit by lightning. I really like thunder storms.

Mckayla says

Storm got stuck in a museum in a fairy exhibit. There was a huge lightning and the power went out. The goblin tried to kill the girls with lightning and he tried to get Storm but he got so close to Rachel that it burnt her coat and her locket fell off when she tried to turn into a fairy. Storm told Kristy that lightning bounces off mirrors so Kristy went near a mirror and told the goblin to get her. At the last second she moved and the lightning hit the goblin and the girls got the feather. They put in Doodle who then said, "goblins fail." Kristy put together the entire message which said, "Beware! Jack Frost will come if his goblin's fail!"
