Crank it up! Ashley and I were in a rock band! We were practicing for our first concert--and we were jammin'! We couldn't wait to blow the crowd away! But then weird stuff started happening.

Someone replaced our singer's shampoo with black hair dye. A huge explosion went off outside our dress rehearsal. And all our instruments disappeared--right before the concert!

Who was trying to stop the music? We had to find out--fast!

THIS BOOK IS GOOD SO FAR

Alexa Head says

In this book, MK and Ashley are in a band and there are regulations for the band about the people and the instruments and if they can't have the concert with the regulations the mansion of Joney's will go to his formal manager. But things go wrong. One of the restrictions is that there have to be a boy with red hair and braces. Well he comes to practice and his hair has been dyed black so they try to figure out who tried to stop the show then all the instruments disappear. So they try to find out who did it to stop the show and stop the mansion from becoming a music center.

The first chapter book I read back when I was seven

Really great book. I have to read it again to recap on what it was about.

This came in to the Little Free Library at work, and I couldn't resist reading through it.

It's not ~good~, and it certainly has all of the gritty realism of the Olsen Twins' direct-to-video films. But it's more fun than I expected, in a goofy, kids-fantasy kind of way.
