SOLVING CRIMES FROM COAST TO COAST!

Alvirah Meehan, the ever-resourceful former cleaning lady who struck it rich in the lottery, won the hearts of millions of readers and listeners when she narrowly survived a stalking killer in the #1 bestseller Weep No More My Lady. Now she returns with her occasionally befuddled mate Willy in this dazzling collection of interconnected stories.

From the glittering streets of New York City to the shores of both California and Cape Cod, Alvirah and Willy come to the aid of a vacationer accused of murder in "Death on the Cape," assist a fellow lottery winner in distress in "A Clean Sweep," return to the Cypress Point Spa to solve a brutal slaying among the rich and beautiful in "The Lottery Winner," and track down a kidnapper at Christmas time in "Bye, Baby Bunting."

Written with Mary Higgins Clark's trademark wit, romance, and keen eye for thrilling detection, and presented here in unabridged recordings, these Alvirah and Willy stories are destined to become perennial favorites.

Susan says

I really enjoyed these fun, clean mysteries. They are well done even though short, there is enough detail to make them complete. I especially love the Willy and Alvirah stories. They are just so real and I love their relationship.

I would recommend these stories to any mystery lover.

Kaye says

A collection of short stories featuring Willy and Alvirah. They are the cleaning woman and plumber who have won a lottery and are featured in several of Clark's books. This was a quick read, especially because two of the stories were in another short story collection I read a couple of weeks ago (published 21 years apart). Clean, quick mysteries. Alvirah the amateur detective gets in one situation and then another and Willy will be there to back her up. For me this was a happy mystery read between other books.

Rebecca says

The Willy and Alvirah books are some of my favorites by Mary Higgins Clark. There is a fun element of humor that I really like in these books. They are fun, relaxing and enjoyable books.

Nicole says

Good group of short stories.

Shireen says

I would rather read a good long book than short stories, but I have to read all of her books. Will probaly read it again.

Linda says

Always at the end of my seat in suspense!

Chris Crawford says

Love the Willie & Alvirah stories!

Mydanes says

I love all the stories involving these charming characters

Debra says

Very entertaining!

Becky says

As always, a very fun and clean mystery book.
