Gideon: The Nightwalkers: 2 Jacquelyn Frank

They're called the Nightwalkers--proud, ancient beings who live in the shadows, existing just beyond the human world. But there are also dangerous humans who hunt them--necromancers who use the blackest magic to manipulate them. And for a Demon named Gideon, the battle against these evil forces will soon be all too personal...

AS A HEALER, HE KNOWS HER BODY. BUT IT'S HER HEART HE WANTS.

For a thousand years, Gideon has healed his people. And as the oldest surviving male of his race, his wisdom has always been respected without question. But Gideon knows that even he is vulnerable to the powerful, primitive desires that befall his kind during Hallowed moons--and nine years ago that truth was hammered home when he found himself claiming Magdaleyna, the Demon King's sister, in a wild embrace. Horrified by his lack of control, he left her wanting and furious--and then exiled himself for the better part of a decade. Now, with necromancers threatening his people--and Magdaleyna nearly their victim--Gideon must face another truth. He and the beautiful, stubborn Magdaleyna are destined to be together, to share a love as deep and old as time itself. But first he needs to regain her trust. Then he'll have to save her life...

Every night holds secrets.

^^GIDEON UP!^^

The second book in the NightWalker series is not as good as the first but it does spin a very interesting story and introduces you to characters that you cant help but love and be intrigued by. This world of demons is unlike any other, they are the earth able to rule over the elements with strength and power. I give this book a 3.5 out of 5. I liked it but I didn't love but I still gobbled it down.

Gideon is an Ancient being one of the oldest demon all he knows is solitude, and has no idea how to communicate and identify with others of his race. He is also a body demon, which makes him the all powerful doctor in the demon world. If you need some serious healing then old Gide is your man. After 8 years of disappearing from the demon world, the prodigal Ancient makes his return to help with the delivery of a half-breed baby(check first book Jacob) and every one cant help but be grateful. There's only one person who lights Gideon's fire and that's Magdelegna this beautiful woman that he considers a child because she's a wee 300 and something years old, talk about baby but I guess when you have lived a millennia everyone seems like a child.

Magdelegna is a powerful mind demon, but she's also very lonely and a little prissy, but she meets her match in the form of the powerful Ancient her destined mate. She cant believe the attraction between them when a few years ago they get caught up in a night that is the hardest for demons, because it fuels lust and can lead to people being hurt or killed. Talk about rough sex. So now both have to get over their hang ups and face a love that is as old as time. Some of the most unnecessary hang ups ever.

So this mated couple gets caught up in a war with their most hated enemies the necromancers(users of dark magic and summons demons for evil things). One they know your demon name you are pretty much caput. I just love the way they fight almost beautiful the way they are able to control the minds and body of their enemies, no guns and fancy martial arts skills needed here but that doesn't mean they don't know how to. Plus the connection that the fighting pairs have make them almost indestructible, able to share each other thoughts while fighting or being apart is pretty cool. I love when they go all Captain Planet on the necromancers "Earth, Fire, Wind, Water" well you get what I am saying.

Overall I liked it and left me wanting to dive in the third book and it's a good thing I already own them. So if you like demons, the strong but silent type male and the powerful but very feminine female then I think you might enjoy this. Elijah here I come, on the PL scale it's a 2.5 not very sexy but it will keep you warm.

SUMMARY (50 words or less)

Honestly I like book one better. This wasn't bad, but it wasn't as good as the first. I kind of knew what would happen in this book based on the last. It seemed like there was a lot of set up in future book for other characters in this one.

Xe Sands did a good job. However, in this one, I found that all the men sounded a lot like Jacob from the first book. Especially Gideon and Jacob. Because Jacob was in the book, I sometimes didn't know who was doing the talking.

Shannon (Giraffe Days) says

After a slow, rocky start (the first 2-3 chapters), this second book in the Nightwalkers series really takes off and doesn't slow down for breath. There was too much exposition and re-capping in the beginning, no matter how relevant some of it was, and this lost it a star (it took me two tries to read this). But the chemistry and development of Gideon and Magdelegna was excellent, and you get to meet the Vampire Prince, Damien, and the Queen of the Lycanthropes, Siena. Bella and Jacob feature prominently, as Bella is viciously attacked and nearly killed by a new threat to the Demons, and they realize there's a traitor in their midst.

The plotline of Gideon and Legna is very interesting. What happens to Gideon is the ultimate female fantasy: that a man so reserved, arrogant, domineering and seemingly detached, can change, can be influenced in a positive way by a woman, who can - no, not change, but bring out certain repressed qualities. There are many women who have stayed in a relationship too long in hopes of "changing" their man, and fail because it's not changing the man at all, it's an attempt to release qualities of compassion, consideration, understanding, empathy etc, qualities that women in general value and require in others - if a relationship fails it's often because they weren't the right women to reveal this in the man, or perhaps he just doesn't have it in him. Whatever. Anyway, it's a fantasy that features predominantly in romance fiction, and in Gideon is quite beautiful and really makes you smile, because he's just so adorable in his vulnerability as well as sexy in his strength :) Yep: fantasy.

I can't believe the reviews on this book are not more positive, I really loved it. I enjoyed the first book, Jacob, well enough to read the next one at least, and I'm very glad I did because I loved Gideon.

I've seen some complaints on other reviews that the first love scene doesn't appear until quite late in the book, but for me, this really built the anticipation and when it did finally happen it was lovely. The love scenes were certainly not the hottest I have read, but I felt that they were quite emotional, which suited the characters and the tone of the book.

I loved how Gideon gradually started to feel emotion after living without it for so long, and how Legna helps him to communicate with others and realise when someone is reaching out to connect with him.

Gokce ~Muslin Myst~ says

I was compelled to give this 5 stars because of its success in gripping my attention back to this series alone after the awfully disappointing of the first one.

Now this is what I call a good romance! Here we have Gideon, the enigmatic Ancient healer of the demon race, and Legna, the kid sister of the King of the demon race and secret admirer of Gideon.

I already liked Gideon from the first book, perhaps even more so because of his hostility towards Isabella, the heroine of the first book who I absolutely hated. Gideon is the oldest surviving member of his race therefore he has great knowledge and is a well respected demon. It was already clear from the first book that he had a certain fascination towards Legna and this one only added to it. He's a cynical character, blunt and completely oblivious to any feelings of caring or loving another save for his patients. There's something extremely sexy about warming the stone-cold heart of a man who's been letting himself be haunted by mistakes of the past. And that is what Legna manages exactly.

Legna is a strong woman despite the overprotective efforts of her brother to shield her from the dangers of their ways of life. She's always been both fascinated and intimidated at the same time by the Ancient healer and yet being the Mind demon herself she doesn't let that get in the way of their relationship after discovering they're Imprinted, destined to be each other's. I was so glad to see her not to turn out to be like her predecessor.

There were some great hot moments in this book, especially the constant struggle Gideon had with his feelings were amazing in my opinion. Again with the cold guy falling in love being sexy ;) Gideon and Legna were adorable together, at times not afraid to challenge each other but the love and respect they held for one another was tangible. And the part where they find out about Legna's pregnancy must be one of the most sweet moments of paranormal romance books that put a smile on my face.

I was glad to see some new characters introduced to the story, like Damien the Vampire Ancient and Siena the Lycanthrope. I'm actually looking forward to reading their stories.

One thing you'd guess that bothered me was to see Isabella. Sorry folks, I can't stand the woman. I see that she hasn't lost anything from her selfish and spoiled being. The only thing she worried over was her freaking wedding. If I was one of the bad guys I'd just step aside for a bit while she had her goddamn wedding just so she could shut up about it! And it irritated me that everyone constantly pointed out how great and how powerful she is and how she helped them a lot and blah blah blah. She didn't do any wonders if you ask me, other than her superhuman ability to annoy me to no end. Legna was way way waaaay better heroine and definitely much much more helpful through the books -yes, plural- and she's done enough favors to last her a lifetime and that is the lifetime of an immortal. First time ever I wasn't happy about a past character coming back for recent book.

Other than that, it was a great installment, one that managed to engage me back to the series. Good job Gideon and Legna!

Re-read by audiobook. I'm a little tired of the Romanian-ish accent. And then they threw in a Russian accent. I didn't like this one any better

Previous review 07/15/10 I'm going to give this book 3.5 stars. The beginning was a little boring. I thought Legna was a little weird around Gideon and couldn't figure out why she was throwing fits everytime she saw him. When it was finally explained that about 8 years before he saw her in the garden, gave her some really intense kisses, pushed her away and called her a child, well I would have been pissy too. About 1/4 of the way in, I started enjoying the book, but I had to put it aside and read a couple of other books before I did that. Thus, the lower rating. All in all, though, it's a good book. This is the second Nightwalker book I've read by Ms. Frank and will finish the series. I've also read the other nightwalker-ish series (can't remember the name). Really, really like that one. The Gatherers series, I've just read one that I didn't like but still bought book #2 because I've liked everything else by her. I'll read the next book in the series hopefully in August.

Gideon, the second book in the Nightwalkers series, was an okay read.

Unlike Jacob, the first book, which I loved, this book felt long, analytical, somewhat boring, and very redundant. The author kept reiterating the plot from the first book. These books are meant to be read in order, and it was disappointing that the author didn't treat it as such.

Also, the two main characters, Gideon and Magdalena, had very little, if any, chemistry between them. I even found myself, toward the end, skimming their love scenes. A shame considering Ms. Frank is fantastic at writing erotica.

What I did like about this book was the cast of captivating and endearing secondary characters and the introduction of the Vampires and Lycanthropes (Werewolf) into the Nightwalker world. These characters added depth, intrigue, and zest to what would have otherwise been a completely boring read.

The paranormal world Jacquelyn Frank has created is utterly fascinating and addictive. It's the reason why I'm willing to continue with this series regardless of how disappointed I am with this particular book.

Jessica's Totally Over The Top Book Obsession says

4 It took you 9 years to figure that out? Stars

Spoilers

This is the second book in the nightwalkers series. Gideon is a Ancient healer and the oldest surviving member of his race, the demon. Magdaleyna is the Demon King's baby sister. 9 years earlier Gideon caught up in a moment, started making out with Magdaleyna in the gardens. He ends up pulling away freaking out over his loss of control and her young age and telling himself it is the madness of the hallowed moons. Calls her a child and there by Pissing her off to no end and then he exiled himself for almost 9 years. So at the start of this book He and Legna figure out they are actually mates and started imprinting 9 years ago. Now he has to win her love and trust and make up for hurt feelings! Ok so this book was not as good as Jacob's book, but it was still a good read.

I liked Gideon. He was powerful, always in control and very serious! I loved how he is a tell it like it is kind of guy, very up front. Doesn't let himself feel. I loved how Legna made him lose control, challenging and pushing him to acknowledge his emotions. Making him fall in love with her and Demanding his everything! He becomes very playful with her and it is very sexy.....

“The problem is,” he said in a rush of soft words, “aside from my trouble reconciling myself to the idea that I actually deserve you, Nelissuna, I am quite rusty in matters of affection and romantic emotion. I am afraid I have no idea how to go about earning your trust and your good opinion, never mind being what you need... beyond that.”

.“Gideon,” she breathed, unable to draw in enough air to sound his name more firmly. “Mmm, I love when you speak my name, Neliss,” he said, his tongue touching to the sensitive lobe of her ear just long enough to draw it between his gentle lips. “I will love it just as well when you cry it out. And even more so when you scream it.”

“I suppose at some point, if I start to go crazy, you are going to have to knock me out or tie me up or something.” “Hmm. The latter has possibilities,” he mused with a growing smile that erased the tension in his face. Legna laughed, giving him a shove. “Gideon, you are nothing but an ancient pervert,” she teased him. “And this is an issue because... ?”

Legna I liked, but in the first part of the book she acted like a baby and a brat and I just kept thinking

Thank God that only lasted a very short time. Then she was back to being the legna I fell in love with in the first book. Brave, sweet, caring, sassy with a little bit of shy. She was also funny and playful. A little childish at times, but very grown up at other times. I love how she never backed down from Gideon and forced him to feel and let him know that she would have all of him or none!

“As an empath and as your mate, this is my territory! You are my territory! Mine! Ugly or beautiful, raging or passionate, you are mine for the rest of our existence, Gideon, just as you claim I am yours, and I will not let you feed yourself to me in select little bites and bits! I will have all of you or I will turn my back on you and take nothing at all!”

“I am here. I will always be here,” she soothed him sweetly, meeting his gaze when he brushed a finger under her chin to tilt her head back. “Promise me, Neliss,” he said hoarsely. “I have heard those who speculate that I am indestructible, but I swear on my soul that it will kill me to ever lose you.” “I will always be here,” she reiterated as strongly as her heart could manage. He reached to caress her face with warm, tender knuckles. “Do not leave me, Neliss.” He was pleading with her, unashamed of the need and emotion his voice reflected. “Sleep beside me today and all the days to come.”

“You smell so good,” he murmured against her ear a long minute later. “I smell like sex,” she argued. He nodded, making a loud noise of appreciation as he sniffed and nibbled her neck. “You smell of very good sex,”

The reasons this book was not as good as the first is because of the aforementioned childishness of Legna at the start of her and Gideon's relationship, and in parts of the book it got a little repetitive.

There was some new characters that were introduced that I really liked. When Legna quit being a baby there was some really beautiful parts to her and Gideon's relationship.

“Because I am afraid of anything that might mean I will lose you,” he confessed. “I told you, my love, I am not going anywhere. I am here, right where I belong. My heart lives with your heart, my soul with your soul. I love you, Gideon. You have to start believing that, and believing that you deserve it.” “I will never deserve it,” he said roughly. “But I will endeavor to do so for the rest of my days. I love you, Neliss, as I have never loved in the whole of my life. You are my heart, my breath, my every thought and every aspiration. You are the true source of my power, because without you I am utterly powerless.”

There was a kick ass fight at the end and some long overdue weddings.... This was a solid 4 star book and I am looking forward to the next book in this series!

So, Gideon. I really liked him in the first book but now I loooove him. I love that he and Legna Imprinted really early in the book and that they realized that and their love for each other very quickly. Many think that he's cold and unfeeling, but he's not; he's just afraid of how his emotions make him feel. Good Lord, he's an excellent lover. I mean, the guy gave Legna an orgasm without even freaking touching her. He has awesome powers and skills. I love when he realized the sound he was hearing at the end was their baby's heartbeat; I knew she was pregnant anyway (just look at the prophesy in the beginning).

There were times throughout the novel when Legna irritated me in some way but I still love her; I liked her in Jacob and now I love her. I love her powers and I love that Gideon is the reason her powers were so strong. I love how accepting she was of Gideon after he explained to her what happened from his POV those nine years ago.

I freaked out when they found Bella bloody and broken on the floor. She almost died and Gideon fixed it so that she's didn't lose the baby. I freaked out, also, when Corrine was kidnapped, and I was very, very glad she was rescued. Those damn necromancers!

I hate Ruth for the way she treats Bella and Jacob, and now I hate Mary, too. I never suspected them to be behind the attacks on Bella and Corrine, but now that I know it was them, it all makes sense and connects now.

I continue to love Elijah and I cannot wait to read his book next. I was suspicious of Siena at first but now I really like her. I love that she's friends with Legna and Gideon and helped them. They are going to make an awesome couple. The hostility, respect, and distrust are going to turn them into an awesome romance.

I love Damien, the Vampire Prince. I'm ashamed to say that I did think the vampires were behind Bella's attack since he was the only one Gideon had told about the Druids. But, I love him and can't wait to read his book either.

I still love Noah. Although, I did want to beat him when he was coming down on Gideon and Legna, even though I now know it was because he didn't want Legna to find out about their mother's death and that they hid her memories of what she saw. I can't wait for his book either.

I have to say that I liked Gideon more than Jacob. Even though there was a conspicuous lack of Elijah, there was a lot of Noah. And I really liked how this one brought more of the Nightwalker species into play.

Wow. That was a huge letdown! I loved the first book in the series, Jacob. But I really did not like this one. I did not like Gideon at all. He was a cold jerk. I really think he was modeled after Gregori from Feehan's Dark series. But unlike Gregori, he has no idea how to treat his mate. There was zero heat. Zero chemistry.

I did not like Lena either. She was a doormat when it came to him. He kissed her 9 or 10 years prior and left her hanging by calling her a child and saying not nice things. Then one year later he avoids her and stalks a human to have sex with to "save" Lena from him. Yea ok. Jackass. Then he disappears for almost 9 years. This is NOT a man obsessed with his mate. Then later he declares them mates and proceeds to tell her she is immature for being jealous and he would never feel that way towards her. He is too intellectual for that. I wanted to slap him too many times to count.

I loved glimpses of Jacob and Bella.

Not sure about the next book. Seems like it was really unliked. But I want to keep up with the story arch.
