Kate B says

Oh, if only this had been around when I was a child... My children seemed less keen on them than me, but I could still have a sneaky read in the library while they were looking at the jigsaws on the rocket carpet.

Kate Stead says

I do like the Little Miss and Mr Men books. We tend to take 4-5 on holiday or as they can fit easily in the kids toy bags and they will flick through them or create a game around who has which books when we are travelling.

This one has a cute story and like most of them, has a humour that appeals to our 3 and 5 year olds.

A cute and fun story to have as part of your Mr/Little Miss collection.

Tara Calaby says

I don't remember a lot about this one, beyond the fact that I definitely read it as a kid.

Ian McHugh says

She giggled. SHE GIGGLED.

Siobhan says

Ah, Mr Men and Little Miss, how wonderful you are!

These books made up so much of my childhood. No matter what I would go ahead and pick one up. I worked my way through them all a couple of times. Each one has a wonderful story for the child to engage with, each character being fun to read.

Everyone has a bias for their favourite character, yet every book is delightful.

Alannah Clarke says

I absolutely loved these Mr Men and Little Miss books. I remember getting them from my granny every week. There was so much from these simple characters, I remember filling my little bookshelf with all these books making sure I had got them all in right order. I wish I still had these books but somehow most of them got lost with many house moves or my mum gave the rest away. If I ever have kids, I will make sure they get the chance to experience these wonderful, colourful books.

Allison Jenkinson says

I loved it!

Miguel J says

It was funny when he bought a box of giggles! I liked it because you couldn't see it and when they were talking she just came out with giggles!

It was also funny that she was actually giggling.

Shirley Revill says

I had great fun building up a bookshelf up of these wonderful stories for children. My children and grandchildren really loved them and so do I. We have had hours of fun with these books. Highly recommended.

Calista says

Today, the nephew told me he hated Little Miss books. My heart sank a bit. I told him that Mr. Happy, Mr. Funny and Mr. Topsy-Turvy were all in there and what do you know, he really enjoyed this story after all. I think it was more he wanted to watch TV instead of read. The book hooked him anyway. He gave it 3 stars after all.

Little Miss Giggle lost her giggle and Mr. Happy helps her find it again.

The wall paper in this one is extreme, lines verses checks and all kinds of 80s decor. I still think these books are fun. Just a few hundred left.

John Wilson says

She's laughing AT you, not WITH you.

Roy says

I read this book to my little daughter a couple of times this month based on a recommendation from a friend on Google+. I am so glad I did! My daughter absolutely loved it and giggled many times. I can remember reading some others of this series when I was growing up. I am glad they are still around!

Heather Spergel says

my kids love these books. little miss giggles lost her giggle and mr. happy tries to help her. adorable! great words for kids to hear and learn.

Mathilda Mallinson says the most giggliest books of all. I giggled all the way through as I read it.
