From Reader Review The Gift for online ebook

Yet another wonderful book from this writing team. The only thing that let this one down a little was some bad editing there was a little more grammar errors than I was used to.

Emotonal Reads says

From what I've read about this book I would have been more impressed if he hadn't whored out his wife to have a baby or she wasn't such a slut and all into it. I think he gets off having intimacy with his brother, it's like incest. I'm grossed out and disgusted.

how can you love someone or in love, they're your one and only but have no problem with sharing them. It just shows this is not a love relationship but one based on lust and smut.

I don't see how this was rated so high.

Tina says

Well, okey dokey then! That was pretty damned hot.

I always enjoy this writing team's erotica work. It is sexy, intelligent, classy and emotional.

Kristla says

This book was an easy read. I did enjoy the characters and the plot of the story. I do wish I could have been longer and delved a bit deeper into the relationship of Hannah and Ethan before she met Benjamin. All in All, it was good spicy, quick read.

Senora says

One of the most romantic contemporary menage a trois I've read in a while. A really great story line. When the husband finds out he is incapable of fathering children that his wife wants with all of her heart and soul, he turns to his brother for help in fathering his wife's child.

Together these three lovers work through their emotional issues then set the pages on fire with their hot smexy love-making and steamy bedroom talk. The plot is completely believable and the characters seem so real. The author/s did a great job with this book. A very quick read(less than 100 pages).
