I love these books. They remind me of Doctor Who in that they have underlying mysteries that carry over between books. New things keep popping up. I love it.

When the kids go to Droon, Eric has these powers from book #12, and he accidentally makes flying donuts go through the basement, but he tries to get them all in his mouth. Sparr is in this one with a mask, and his henchman is in it too. I liked this one because it had a lot of action and fighting.

I've decided to read The Secrets of Droon series entirely for Christmas since i've been feeling a bit nostalgic. I want to be able to live a bit of the magic of being a kid and what better to help than this incredible series. I know that this series is for young kids but i feel it will still be great after all these years. This installment was full of action and twists. We see the development of Eric's powers and the return of Sparr with a new villain. The characters are developed more and we learn various new things. You feel that something big is starting to occur or will occur.
