An excellent example of how God knows what's best for us and also how He does give us the desires of our hearts.

I enjoyed this book and I enjoyed the scripture that was used. I did think the story was unrealistic and too perfect. It may be that personal experience has clouded my judgement.

Barbara says

Probably closer to a 3.5, this mail-order bride story was interesting, I enjoyed the characters, and the ending was very satisfying. I could not rate it higher because in places I found the dialogue somewhat stilted and unnatural, and some of the reactions characters had to very life-changing events a little bit understated. This is a fun series, however, and easy to get through, so I will probably continue to read other books in the series.

I rated it 4 stars because in the beginning of the book, the characters are 14 and 16, but they are acting unrealistic. I think they were acting too much like, "oh I love you" too much to begin with. as the story goes on, however, it gets better as they get older.
