Growing up an orphan, Claire Anderson had very few people to love. If she found one, she would sacrifice anything to help them. Which is exactly how she found herself out of a job and on the street. With her only friend in the world somewhere out west, married to a Mountie, Claire seeks out the only woman in Ottawa who might be able to help her — Miss Hazel Hughes.

Nathaniel Clarke is passionate about his job as a Mountie in Cougar Springs, Alberta, but he's a little lost when it comes to women. All he knows is that he has no interest in the wealthy, spoiled ladies who frequent the town's famous hot springs, so he agrees to be matched with a bride from back east.

From the moment Claire steps off the train, she and Nathaniel begin building a life together, learning to trust and care for each other as they go. When an dangerous man from Nathaniel's past arrives in town, is as determined to keep Claire safe.

The problem is, she's just as determined to see the man brought to justice.

What will happen when trust is broken—even if it is being done for love?

Rocky saves the day.

This is an awesome story in the RNWMP series and Ms. Dawson did a marvellous job writing this story. I loved both the hero Mouny and heroine his mail order bride plus one unexpected hero of the four legged variety. This is a story of what true love really looks like and it was fantastic. Of course I highly recommend this book 10 of this series which you can read as a stand alone but I will also highly encourage you to read the whole series by four authors that at all very good from what I have read so far and I have no doubt that all the books in this series will be equally fantastic and I have loved all the stories I have read from these four authors, all of which I haven't been able to put down.

Perfect again.

I don't know how one woman can make so many perfect matches, but she did it again. I truly love to read these sweet stories. They make me happy. That is what I think entertainment should do.

A Heartwarming story of a orphan child grows up to be a maid. She grabs the adventure when she agrees to be a mail order bride. I love that the character's are like us all a little flawed but special in our own way. Rocky the reindeer adds humor and hero to the story. I highly recommend you read this book and the others in the series. Happy Reading????

Sherry Stratton says

I always love all the stories about the girls who step out to marry a Mountie, it's such an adventure and scary to think of traveling to a new place to marry a man you have never met. I love the fun they encounter with Rocky and Monty the moose, I enjoy how they discover love through the trials they go through.

Sweet love story

I enjoy stories crafted by Kay Dawson. They're written with fully developed characters such as this Mountie romance. Wonderful sweet story of courage and love.

Babs says

Claire grew up as an orphan. She only wanted love as she hardly knew what it was to have someone for herself. Her only friend Rose, already moved west to marry a mountie and once Rose's father found out Claire helped, she was fired from her job. What is a girl to do but go see Miss Hazel.

Nathaniel is very passionate about his job. He takes it seriously and loves being a mountie. He doesn't know how to handle a woman, he has so little experience. He does know one thing, no wealthy women, he is done with those type of ladies.

I loved this book the most so far as Claire and Nathaniel are great together and a lot of fun. He learns quick, Claire will speak her mind she does not hold back. She wants to bring a man to justice and will do it no matter what.

Can Nathaniel trust her in the end?

Wonderful read.

Another Sweet and Funny Mountie Romance

I love this series. Wonderfully written, with characters who are real, not perfect, but loveable. This particular book includes more of Rocky the Reindeer. It's heroine and hero mesh well, and it deals with abuse and criminal activity well. My only complaint is how short the stories are.

E-Reader. Romance

Claire Anderson when she was a baby was left in front of an orphanage. When she was old enough she took a job for a wealthy family, to be the maid for their daughter Beth.

They became close friends, even though that was not allowed. Beth wanted nothing to do with marrying someone her family knew. She was independent and had a mind of her own. She wanted to marry a mountie. When her father found out she was fired & he docked her pay.

She goes to Miss Hazel Hughes hoping she can be a mail order bride for a RNWMP mountie. Miss Hazel asked her questions. She received a letter from Nathaniel Clarke, a mountie in Cougar Springs, Alberta.

Miss Hazel takes group of young women west on trains to get married. And she married Nathaniel Clarke.

Someone from his past shows up at Cougar Springs. Claire finds out but she wants justice. She was ordered to stay away from that man. What Will happen when she breaks that trust, even being done for love?

There is so much more to this story. You need to read this book.
