Tracer Dustin Stevens

Two weeks ago, Lukas Webb was an Army sniper on the front lines in Afghanistan. Upon finding out his father has just days to live, he is granted a compassionate discharge and returns home to Hamilton, Montana to say goodbye and take over the family business. Just days into his tenure at the helm of the WB Ranch, he appears at the front door of an Agriculture Commission meeting carrying a rifle and fires two perfect shots before being taking three rounds himself.

While Lukas sits in Hamilton Memorial Hospital in a medical-induced coma, a frenzy wages on outside. Local law enforcement and prosecutors parade in front of the cameras, blaming the actions on a maladjusted serviceman, using the incident to bolster their own standing. Veterans in the area bristle at the treatment, threatening to lash back at any time. Townspeople claim they no longer feel safe on the streets of Hamilton.

With just days remaining before Lukas wakes and is hauled off to prison for the rest of his life, a call is made to budding attorney Drake Bell for assistance. Employing the help of his friends the Zoo Crew, he begins a maddening search for the real reason behind the shooting, something he suspects resonates much closer to home...

Dustin Stevens is an author whom I will be reading again. Absolutely excellent story, riveting, absorbing, all the characters were very well written. They all had their own personalities which seemed to reach out to you from the pages. When they had their meetings to try and find solutions for different situations you felt as if you were there with them adding your own thoughts. Lukas a nice respectable man well liked by the community enters the community hall and shoots into the area surrounding the committee members. The question is why and the answer will floor the readers of this story. Don't want to give anything away as I know other readers would have given their own synopsis of this very cleverly written story.

Why

Third in the Zoo Crew series, looking forward reading #4. A fast paced read that is hard to put down once started reading. Charges of Attempted Murder against a recently discharged army sniper brings the Zoo Crew into the picture. I highly recommend this author.

Robbie says

I'm enjoying this series; just wish there was more editing going on with it. Won't stop me from reading the next in the series because the characters are likeable and their rapport with one another is fun to read. I rate this one 4.5 stars.

Steve Smith says

Decent read

Not as good as some of his other books but still entertaining. Not enough action for myself and a little slow starting but still a decent story.

Elisa Hordon says

I am really enjoying the Zoo Crew stories a great legal thriller with an extra edge and a great group of friends that always have each others backs.

While the stories tend to centre around Drake being the law student but he always calls his crew in for help which just makes each story better.

Hamburger, Anyone?

Great story! Quite an eventful 8 day period between Christmas and New Year. Folks traveling for the Holiday. New friends introduced. And a solid story with intrigue unfolding. You are going to love it!!

Kenny says

What a great original plot. Also quite the page turner. I just had to know why! Great suspense and a great ending.

Lynda Lock says

Read the entire Zoo Crew series love 'em all!

Tracie Zeissel says

Good story. Quick and easy read

This us the third "zoo crew" I've read and all have been enjoyable. Quick and easy reads. Interesting stories that are realistic and have likable characters.

Michelle Duke says

Another good read

Another chapter in the Zoo Crew adventures done superbly. Full of action,suspense, twists. Unexpected ending to make room for another saga.

Kerry Steenson says

Have read a few of this series and always find editing and proof reading needs a lot of work. Don't like the terse sentencing way of writing. Good story line in most of them. I think being an older person in Australia I totally miss the humor in these stories. If they were any dearer I wouldn't be purchasing. This will be my last one.

Wancket Enterprises says

Outstanding

I have liked these books a lot, however, I think this was the best one so far. I like all books written by Dustin Stevens. Keep up the great work!

Grammatical error's and poor editing good read.

The Zoo Crew Series is once again a winner for Dustin Stevens. The biggest fault in all his books is poor editing and the claim at the ending of all his books that he reads reviews. If he truly did he would cleanup his editing and really sky rocket. His development of characters and for the most part consistency really engages the reader to buy his next addition..... I would also truly like to thank the author (no faith he is reading this, but just in case).... To say thank you for providing sequels that do not drop the story in the middle and expect readers to purchase.. Hats off for completing a full storyline in each novel.. Errors and all your work is worth reading ..thanks?

I really like the Zoo Crew! I want to join!

The "head" of the Zoo Crew, more by default than anything else, Drake, had been a football star during his undergrad days; now, last year of law school, Drake can not and will not turn his back on those that can't help themselves. And, no matter what is happening, he knows the Zoo Crew have his back -- it's just how they roll.

When a huge cattle baron sets out to deceive to obtain what he wants, he didn't count on being discovered. When he is, shots are fired -- by an army sniper, no less! Instead of him fighting for his life, he believes he has gotten what he wants and that everything is now in place to make his final move! Ahhh, but he knows nothing about the Crew and their friends . . . none of them will turn their back on a young woman, who just days before had buried her father, and now whose brother, recently returned from the Army, is fighting for his life and in a coma!

JEAN H MCKILLOP says

clean and suspenseful

great story from young upstarts in Montana pastureland!
the zoo crew. fantastic! author gets story told without earning x rating!
