Commandeers will storm the Capital. The shake-up in America will be adorned yet not by others. There are even few that have gained a neutral stance and hold an extra-ordinary secret that's set to change all that.

A lot of people see democracy has failed after the worst Wall Street crash being blamed on the last President. An opulent tyrant promises the economy will bounce back and his support is solidified through the privileged few.

Martin and Leo are the privileged few; high-ranking astronauts sent to Mars to prove the General's resolve to the world. Of course, the flight is of great significance to the new statesmen which will make or break them. Anyhow, the astronauts will discover something on the remote planet that will change their aspects on life. It's also enough to get them both killed if word reaches Earth.

Martin's and Leo's adventure will see their loved-ones trying to keep their lives in check; their new pampered leader turning against them, and being in the cross-hairs of freedom fighters...It's all because of the remote planet.

The novel is split into three books. Book one will allow you to follow Leo who's the privileged few. As he's the main character, you'll see him rising the ranks like his counterpart General Kaiser. You'll even see what's on the red planet and uncover the threat that's set to harm him and his family. In the second book, you'll be introduced to a prominent freedom fighter. He wants revenge for the misery caused by General Kaiser and the depths he'll take to succeed. The final book, it's about deception; mistrust and the climax is enough to make you believe that you live in an ideal world!

This gripping suspense and science fiction will take you into a new dimension like no other!

I absolutely love this book. One of the best sci-fi novels I've read in a while. It's a great fast-paced read full of twists and turns. I won't spoil the plot but I'd definitely recommend it.

I received this book for free via a first reads giveaway.
