Princess Ellen Miles

Welcome to The Puppy Place! This Little Apple series stars a lovable new puppy in every book! And it's Charles and Lizzie Peterson's job to find every puppy the perfect home.

It seems like it's going to be just another normal Peterson family trip for haircuts - that is until Charles meets Princess, a spoiled but irresistible Yorkie pup. She belongs to one of the stylists but Princess's owner is moving and can't take the puppy with her. Charles volunteers to care for Princess until they find her a new home. But it doesn't take long for the Petersons to get tired of Princess's privileged ways. How will Charles ever find the right family for this high maintenance pup?

My 7 yr old discovered these books and loves them. Between her birthday coming up and Christmas and doing her best to show good behavior in school and being rewarded with a new book at the end of each month (severe ADHD has caused some struggles during her first 2 years in school and we've discovered that the reward of a book after a great month is what works to help her behavior), she is going to fly through this series.

I think this book was cool because it had a family that took care of dogs until they could find an owner for them.

This fantastic realistic fiction is awesome for all ages. I had a great time reading this hillarious fiction because its a fantastic fun read. Mostly my favorite part of the book is that Princess the dog was acting like a little sasy diva. This book is about a little Yorkie that was settled to a foster family because her owner had to go to L.A. to work with a famous fashionista. When Charles meets Princes he knew it was going to be a hard job to foster a spoiled sasy dog. When Charles went to reading with rover program and takes Princess with him he finds that a little boy named Henry and Princess were the perfect pair. Now Princess has found a forever home. I have schema with this book because my cousins family is a foster family.

not real happy with this book. the series as a whole tends to talk down to kids in that the puppies have weird voices. in this book the kids identify the problem, that princess is spoiled, and that fixing this will take a lot of work, but none of the strategies is mentioned.

Krithi says

This book series is about a family that fosters puppies until they get a forever and perfect family.

In this book it all starts when Charles and his older sister, Lizzie, go to see their hair - cutter, Danielle and when another hair - cutter comes in with a puppy, that is when the story begins.

The hair - cutter says she will be working with Henry (on-ree), professional hair colorist, and will not come back, and that she won't take her dog with her, the dog's name was Princess.

Lizzie hated small dogs, her mom only liked cats, and her dad agreed with her. Looks like it was up to Charles, but when he found how picky Princess really was , he was going to pay `expenses and make her happy by matching her wants, unless someone loved her

I like this book because it is about a spoiled puppy finding a forever home with a little help and support, and helping a boy learn to read at the same time (in a program at the library) and doing that is a very rare happening, maybe it never happens at all .

Will someone take Princess home? Will they keep her? Will Charles make a new friend that will make him not so different going to Danielle's salon ? All will be found out in the puppy place - Princess.

This was a great book about a really cute dog!

Abigail Cieslak says

This girl is really spoiled. TOO spoiled

Ben Denison says

Fun read with my daughter. We read each night a few pages. Great time together.

Cora says

Per my first graders:She was cute because she had a bow in her hair. It was cool because there was lots of dogs in it. It was a good mystery because we didn't know who was going to adopt Princess.

Svetlana H. says

Cute.

Jodi says

Cute book for young dog lovers. It was a very appropriate read-aloud for my kindergartner. We'll check out more of this author's puppy chapter books.

Emily 5 1/2: I liked Princess making demands on Charles. Princess liked the grooming shop because she liked the good smells. I recommend all children to read this book!

Garrett Lammey says

i loved it

Hicham says

i hate dogs .. but i think its a sweet dog

Erin says

Princess is very cute.
