Rodeo Baby Mary Sullivan

A SMALL TOWN. A BIG SURPRISE.

Handsome, strange men are not on Violet Summer's radar—especially ones sitting in her diner in too-new cowboy gear. She'll eat an old boot if Sam Michaels is a real cowboy. Nope, there's a reason Mr. Phony Cowboy and his teenage daughter are here in Rodeo, Montana...and she'll find out the truth.

Sam just wants to get back to New York. He doesn't need complications, like the gorgeous diner owner who irritates and intrigues him at the same time. Or a simmering attraction that results in one unforgettable night—and an unexpected bun in the oven! Now he's torn between his big-city life...and becoming a real cowboy for good.

Rodeo Baby is a Rodeo Montana series by Mary Sullivan. Sam Michaels and his 13 year old daughter go to Rodeo, Montana. Sam's grandfather is in a nursing home. In the family was a huge fairgrounds. For the last 15 years it hasn't been running. Six women from Rodeo, Montana want to revive the fair grounds. Sam's thinks the women are cheating his grandfather. His grandfather said the ladies bought the use of the land for a dollar. No papers were signed and he is forgetting what really went on. Sam is there not under his own name to check out what is going on. No one knows who his grandfather is. Sam can ride a horse but knows nothing about ranching. Never have worked on a ranch. Sam and daughter move in with a family and Sam works the ranch. Funny things happen while he is there. He meets Violet Summer at her restaurant. Sam likes her. This is a funny, romantic book. A good read.
