Ido says

I want to say something:

You must evaluate me as a critic, because it is very, very difficult to write reviews about things that do not happen to them.

It's just a bad book, I wanted to give up in the last episode but I did not want to because I knew I had two chapters left and it's just so bad.

And again, like what I write in criticizing a chapter in this bad story, only the last whip is important and everything is unnecessary.
