loved the story...glad I'm not living it

Jessica says

Allison and Bart finally have some down time on a much needed vacation. However, this only lasts so long when they are contacted and head off to ... wait for it... Idaho. Right here in Idaho, Islamic fundamentalists are about to wreck havoc. Ironically or somewhat prophetically, the author has done her research very well. This book was published in March 2001 and she names Osama bin Ladin as the head of the terrorist group.

Dara says

another great read from this author!

Michele says

I changed my rating. I rated this with about 4 pages to go. Those 4 pages made it worth 5 stars!

Susan says

Allison knows that she has to go home or lose her baby. The only problem is rescuing Bart taken hostage by terrorists. Until Anastasia can get to her, she's the only member of the team close enough to do anything. She teams up with Clay, a Native American, who's an expert in the mountains above Idaho Falls. The only problem--is Clay a good guy or a bad guy, and will he really help her. I've been to Idaho Falls a few times and I love the area around the temple. My parents were married there, I've been in one of the sealing rooms, so the ending was that much more meaningful to me.

Melissa says

These are fun fast passed good reads. The only problem I had was that the series went on too long.16 and up.

Jana says

I hope that she brings Cody back in other books.

Claudette says

A little slow - did not finish.

Universitybabe says

Andrew and I heard this on tape during a drive in Idaho. We didn't finish before we reached our destination so we spent a few hours the next night listening because we wanted to finish it.

When I read these books in middle school, I loved them! I couldn't get enough. Coming back to reread them, I see their flaws, but I still think they're worth the read. They are fast paced, clean, educational, and easy, quick reads.

Cute book. Lynn was at our business and we were characters in her book! I even got to proof it when it was still being held together with binder clips!

I really liked this one because it was based in Idaho! This is also the one where the main characters get married in the Idaho Falls Temple! Really cool!
