From Reader Review The Naughty List Bundle with The Night Before Christmas & Yule Be Mine for online ebook

Jocelyn says

Some of these stories were pretty good... others felt really contrived and forced. I liked the first three stories but the other two anthologies I was having to convince myself to finish it because I didn't want to chalk the whole thing up to a DNF. Cutesy Christmas stories galore.. It was annoying that there was a duplicate story in the same anthology but oh well. Recommended for spicy quick reads but nothing earth shattering really great Christmas anthology.

Tamara says

Michelle Tempted By Books says

Collection of three Christmas themed anthologies.

Yule Be Mine: This is a Christmas themed collection of short stories by Lori Foster. Overall I will say that I liked it. Her writing style, flow and descriptions were very good. I was just disappointed by the length of the stories, I would really have loved more.

He Sees You When You're Sleeping

Booker wants out of his current relationship because he has fallen hard for his neighbor and friend, Frances. This story skipped the relationship building because the couple are already friends. That I think is what stumbled me, I would have liked to witness it first hand.

White Knight Christmas

Officer Parker Ross hates Christmas, while Lily Donaldson, his neighbor loves it. Among other issues for these two is her hero worship and their age difference. I am not sure what it was about this one but something just didn't work for me.

Do You Hear What I Hear

Sergeant Osbourne Decker thinks Marci Churchill is a kook, and he wants nothing to do with that since his last relationship. However is ridiculously attracted to her. She also wants Decker, but he fights it hard. Really this had more time to develop but again was lacking something. I am suspecting there is a theme of prickly men that annoy me.

The Christmas Present

Levi and Beth had an out of control weekend after Beth discovered that her fiance cheated on her. Since then she has been running from Levi, ashamed of herself. Levi doesn't want it to be over. This story was another hard one to get into. I was uncomfortable with the stalkerish behavior of Levi, the bases were covered with her family present and at some point I got into it. The other thing is I think this goes with a series I haven't read.

Once again I will say these short stories were well written and have good flow, I just wish they were all longer. Overall a pretty decent holiday read.

Naughty but Nice by Donna Kauffman- I felt like this is a short from a running series? The back story just felt like I was missing something and being brought up to speed. The story had a good flow and well developed characters, I just couldn't get into it. There really didn't seem to have anything to do with Christmas in it either.

All I Want For Christmas by Cynthia Eden- I am really enjoying her stories. This one is about a holiday romance involving a couple who have known each other since they were young. Christie is a "good girl" and Jonah is a bad boy, together they are combustible. This is the highlight of the book.

Tattoos and Mistletoe by Susan Fox- I can say that I liked the writing style, the flow and the characters were well developed. However I have to say that I didn't much care for Charlie (the female main character) she was very brash and hard to like. I was able to understand the reasons for her personality, I just didn't care for her. L.J. is excellent, a sweet nerd turned hunk. I love me some hunky nerds. LOL I think the romance had a nice pace and the sex scenes were pretty good. Overall I would say this was a little better than average story.

Also as a whole the Anthology was pretty good.

Ho ho ho, more Christmas quickies for me :)

I read the Naughty List and then moved on because it turns out that the other two anthologies were ones I'd already read.
