Carolyn Aarsen has written another winner with this sweet cowboy romance! You will feel compassion for both physical therapist, Chloe Miner and Grady Stillwater, a wounded Afghanistan veteran. Both of the main characters seem real! Sometimes we need to be honest rather than assuming we know what someone else is feeling!

I won this book in a Soul Inspirations giveaway.

Another great book in this multi-author series! This book focuses a lot more on Ben's progress and the story between him and his brother. There's still lots of questions left unanswered...

Sweet story! Sweet romance! I loved watching Grady and Chloe get together...Chloe's secret and past were also pretty heavy elements in the story.

I'm curious about Vanessa though...It just seems like that was kind of abrupt.

I totally loved Grady Stillwater and his morals! Questions of parenthood, but he knew the truth. And Chloe was a trooper! Another fine story in the Love Inspired line of this continuity.

A Family For The Soldier by Carolyne Aarsen. Book number 4 in the Lone Star Cowboy League. Soldier Grady Stillwater returns home injured. His twin brother Ben is in the hospital in a coma. In this book there is slight movement in Ben. Therapist Chloe Miner was just let go of her job at the hospital because of cutbacks. Grady's grandmother hires Chloe to take care of the baby that was dumped on there doorsteps. Also to do physical therapy with Grady. A women showed up saying she was the mother but come to find out she wasn't really the mother. They still don't know who the mother is. Chloe takes care of the baby and give Grady physical therapy. Chloe hadn't told anyone she was pregnant with her ex-husbands child. Chloe doesn't think Grady will love her is he knew about the baby. A nice romance story
