Dolly says

This is the sixth book of seven in the Rainbow Magic Night Fairies series by the group of authors who go by the pseudonym Daisy Meadows. While the stories are basically the same and follow a simple formula, they are entertaining for young girls who are starting to read chapter books and I love that our oldest is just ripping through them. We both read the books separately and talk about what happens. I'm not a huge fan of them, but each story only takes about 5-10 minutes to read. And these stories center around the nighttime and a summer trip to camp, so it's perfect for summer reading. Our oldest is starting to read them very quickly, too, and she can read several of these stories in one day.

Rebecca Rivera says

Just wanted to check these books out. Reason for my rating is a lack of complexity in the plot, but then it's a 4th grade reading book so what was I expecting? I like the idea of the many types of fairies.

Horace Mann Family Reading Challenge says

I love Anna, she makes me want to read another in the series. A.G.

hi this is 2019 15 year old me who remembers that 6 year old me loved this book so,,,,,yeet

(i'm going to repeat this statement for literally every book i add to my children's literature shelf okay)

Stacy Fowler says

This are a great set of books for tweens - my daughter can't read them fast enough! I decided to pick one up today and check it out. I can see why she's hooked. They're fast reads, have cute characters, and they're full of magic fairy dust - what's not to like?

Jill says

It was very fun. I loved this book, it was not scary. There were a lot of people in it. I liked that the fairy could turn the girls into fairies.
