Spiritual Warfare Prayers Mark I. Bubeck

"Lord, teach us to pray," (Luke 11:1). During His earthly ministry, the disciples made this request of Jesus. He answered them with what has become known as the Lord's Prayer. Today, nearly 2,000 years later, do we as followers of Jesus Christ have a passion for prayer? Do we desire to speak with our heavenly Father? And are the prayers we utter effective? In this handy pamphlet, perfectly sized to slide into your Bible or notebook, Mark Bubeck offers twenty prayers, rich in doctrine, to help Christians triumph in their spiritual battles. Model prayers include those for revival, repentance, intercession, protection from the Enemy, unity in the Body, and wearing the Armor of God. Learn to pray like the disciples did-- by example.

Randi Corkey says

Short book on specific prayers

Short, concise prayers for several subjects. The ones I have used the most are the prayers for children, even though my children are grown.

J Crossley says

This book contains prayers designed to aid you against spiritual warfare.

Pat Hallam says

Useful Prayers

As a guideline these prayers are useful to anyone engaged intercession and spiritual warfare. I adapt them to reflect how I commune with God. Biblically based makes them quite powerful.

Erwin Stull, says

I'll begin with the possible value of this book, as well as others like it. This book presents a "Pray along these lines" guide that may be somewhat valuable to new believers not sure of what to pray. Now for the downside. The prayers are canned and ritualistic. For the author, this is ok, as it is from the author's heart and mind, however, for anyone else, it does not promote a personal relationship and prayer life between you and God.
