Binibining `E (of The Ugly Writers) says

Marko and Alana together..again! yes!

Tara says

Firstly - I love this cover, so beautiful.
Secondly - I like kick-ass momma-bear Alana
Thirdly - Marko and Alana <3
Fourthly - Lying Cat, I just want to hug him

This was a great issue with some reintroductions and some goodbyes - I was very happy and also a bit sad.

Knjiski_Moljac says

I want moreee now!

Stuart says

I enjoyed this issue a lot more then the previous one it finished the story arc well. I'm interested to see how they handle the time skip and I have a feeling were getting close to the end of the series or were at least half way.

Lila says

Main theme of chapter #30:

It's hard to follow previous chapter considering emotional impact, so this one is all about gathering pieces and setting the base for next arc.

This was a good run, Vaughan and Staples are geniuses.

Negativni says

Ah, i konačno je gotovo!

U zadnjoj epizodi su namješteni konflikti koji bi trebali biti šokantni, emocionalni i zanimljivi, ali ostavili su me ravnodušnim.

Šteta s početne žiste petice ovako se srozati, ccc.

Mislim da dosad nisam žitao serijal koji je toliko drastično opao u kvaliteti, Sagu ne planiram dalje žitati.

Složiti žu i nekakav osvrt na cijeli 5. volume, pa da sam s time završio.

5 Stars

Saga #30 by Brian K Vaughan is simply awesome! What a gore filled fast paced episode... The artwork of Fiona Staples steals everything about #30. Our heroes are back And the shit has really hit the fan. Some major story lines finally move forward and all that I can say is "Wow".

I have to say that after 29 editions I have really come to love how this story comes alive due to the graphic novel format. I read each page over and over again before turning it as the artwork demands your attention. Many times the manner in which Staples portrays our heroes tells even more about the story than the actual words do. I simply love it. The story rocks out. Vaughan's no fear of pushing things too far really works. And the artwork...Oh boy the artwork is unvielably awesome. I love this series and thanks to Vaughan and Staples, I love the graphic novel.

I absolutely love Saga...

Praiz Sophyronja says

A huge WOAHH. Loved this issue. The wait for #31 will be hard!

Irene Sim says

Some family members are re-united and some are separated (apparently for a long time). I wonder where this journey will take them next. This story thread ended with a BANG!

Kaleb says

*Screams internally*

---

Thenia says

[Marko and Alana finally reunite, but they lose Hazel... (hide spoiler)]

Rebecca says

Thanks Alicia for letting me read this issue (finally)! I still can't believe I hadn't read it... Now for the awful wait for more issues/volumes.

Liberty K says

That was beautiful! A lot of things happening, just let me digest all that!
