How to be ruined by a book in three days:

- Start a book you don't expect anything from.
 - Read a little bit and feel sure that NOTHING WILL TOUCH YOU IN THIS STORY.
 - Then sometime later realize you are actually enjoying it.
 - Go from mildly interested into full fangirl mode
 - I DON'T UNDERSTAND WHAT'S GOING ON BUT I LOVE IT
 - OMG, WHAT'S GOING ON?!!!!
 - CALL FOR HELP, PLEASE, I DON'T KNOW HOW TO COPE WITH IT.
 - WHAT THE FUCK HAPPENED AND WHO DO I NEED TO KILL TO GET MY HANDS ON BOOK 2?!
 - I AM DEAD, AM I NOT?
 - OH LOOK, WHAT DO I SEE THERE? I BELIEVE IT'S CALLED A SEVERE CASE OF HANGOVER APPROACHING RAPIDLY.
 - WHAT HAVE I SIGNED MYSELF FOR?! crawls into the darkest corner of the world to suffer

i'm just here to read about a tattooed Malachiasz dripping in blood and covered in iron spikes.

i love dark books staring monsters, blood, cool outfits, and that goth aesthetic. mmkay.

the trilogy is called Something Dark and Holy but really it should be called Something Dark and Bloody. you know...because everyone is always covered in blood. (if this trilogy was made into a movie half the budget would go into making the fake blood.)

I absolutely do not believe that there is a single person as excited for this book series as I am. Except maybe the author herself. I am ready for the Eastern European/Slavic/Russian culture, the religious imagery and symbolism, Malachiaz, the GODS, everything. Haven't read the first one but I am so ready to love it and Im literally going to be thinking about it until I (fingers toes tongue feet legs arms muscles BRAINS CELLS crossed ?) get an ARC or early access. And after that, Ill be thinking about this bad boy.

it's weird! it's cerebral! everyone is sad! it nearly killed me (i mean it still is, i'm still editing it)! it's a good 100 pages longer than WICKED SAINTS!

if you like cosmic horror, forests that want to eat you, and very sad very pretty boys and very tired very done with everything girls then i have a book for you.

that's all, see ya in 2020.
