I've gotta say, as the final book to this 8 part series, this last installment was pretty amazing. If you don't want to read any spoilers, you shouldn't continue on with this review.

When this book starts out, Chloe has done everything in her power to help Adrian - the man who dominates both her body and now her heart - from losing everything. Now the waiting game begins. Adrian has offered up everything he owns, the fortune he's built and his personal freedom all to safeguard the island and the people he loves.

Upon returning to their tropical haven for a final few days together before learning Adrian's fate, the lover's realize this could be their last chance to lose themselves in each other and express their feelings the way they do best. And can I just say, the sex is ridiculously HOT! Now that both Chloe and Adrian have embraced the love they feel for one another, they hold nothing back. Chloe can finally submit to her Dom in a way she never was able to before and its a truly beautiful thing. As well as being extremely intense and emotional.

Fortunatley for all involved (and I'm including myself in that group), this couple gets their much deserved HEA ending. After everything Adrian and Chloe have been through, they found the one person that could fill the empty void in their lives in each other.

I wished we got to see Adrian and Chloe a little further down the road - maybe at thier wedding or after tey get married. I was hoping for some kind of epilogue for these characters becuse honestly I'm not ready to say goodbye to them quite yet. However, I should say I was extremely happy with this series as a while and would recommned it to anyone that loves a great erotic romance (especially if your a fan of the whole bdsm element, which is a very prominant feature in these books). If so, you should love these books as much as I did and happy reading!
