Shoot The Moon Jani Kay

Book #6 in the Scorpio Stinger MC Series

Razor & Lexi's STORY

It's rawer, it's grittier and downright dirtier than any of the other Scorpio Stinger MC books. If what's happened before has shocked and delighted you, get ready to be rocked on a whole new level. Meet the anti-hero and the spitfire in SHOOT THE MOON.

Shoot the Moon

1. To attempt the near-impossible.
2. To take a risk for great rewards.
3. To set one's sights high and try for something that one wants badly, but for which realistically the probability of success is not good.

anti-hero

1. Morally ambiguous and flawed hero who is hard and jaded and not entirely pure but has hidden noble intentions.
2. A bad boy with heroic qualities.

spit-fire

[sp?t'f?r']

1. A person, especially a girl or woman, who is of fiery temper and easily provoked to outbursts.
2. Wild & free. Someone whose angry words sting like fire. Considered strong emotionally & spiritually.
3. Someone who you don't want to be on the bad side of.

SHOOT THE MOON

Razor has some heavy boots to fill. He's always lived in the shadow of his brothers and he's sick of it.

Lexi is wild and out of control. She won't be told what to do and she has a filthy mouth that's gotten her into more trouble than she can admit.

He wants her from the first moment he lays eyes on her.

She only has eyes for another man she can't have.

He's determined to claim her and make her his.

She fights him tooth and nail.

Is Razor the one man who can tame her and make her his?

NB:

No cheating involved.

Standalone novella. You don't need to read the other books in the series to enjoy Shoot The Moon, but it would help you understand the characters better as you will have met them throughout the rest of the Scorpio Stinger MC series.

Every once in a while a series that you loved slowly starts to be one that you don't so much like you used to. I was hoping that Shoot The Moon would have my love of this series returning after I didn't like the previous book, but sadly I just didn't like it and I will give the exact reason by. Lexi. She ruined this book for me, I haven't liked her at any point during this series but I had high hopes that with this book I would have found something about her that I could like. Yeah, that didn't happen, if anything I hate her more for how she is to Razor. She was selfish, immature, played too many games, and well in my opinion just trash for how she treats other people.

Razor is what kept me reading because even though in previous books he comes across as an asshole, you start to understand a little bit why in Shoot The Moon, and I have a theory about something else but won't say just in case I am wrong. Razor was a dirty talking, alpha who is hot in the bedroom. I ended up loving him, faults and all.

I don't know if Ms. Kay plans on writing more books in this series and I can't say for sure if I would read them and that makes this book whore sad because I really did love this series. I may if she does a book about Ox, because I have a feeling there is more there that we know.

Shoot the Moon is book 6 in the Scorpio Stinger MC Series and while it can be read as a standalone I highly recommend this series from start to finish. Each book is so damn good!

This is Razor's book, whom I looked forward to for quite awhile.

He's damaged, the ultimate bad boy. So much so that he scares Lexi who pretty much doesn't scare at all.

He wants her.

She wants another.

It just so happens the one she wants doesn't even see her, but he's also Razor's biggest competition in the club so he intends to get his hands on Lexi, make her his and one up Ryder all at once.

But it's not that easy when the woman you want only has eyes for another man.

A man who's taken and looks right through her as if she doesn't exist.

She's stubborn and refuses to see Razor.

I hated Lexi in the beginning.

My God she's a self serving bitch.

The fact that she would try to screw over her cousin, her family, one of few people who tolerate and even support her, to try to get her cousins man gave me plenty of reason to loathe her.

Add to that the fact that she has a man willing to move mountains for her and all she can do is put him down, give him hell and basically disregard him altogether.

I can't remember the last time I detested a leading lady as much as I did Lexi. She made my blood boil, I wanted to beat her to death myself.

Thankfully she grows as the book goes on and eventually becomes a better person.

Razor I adored from the beginning. His cockiness is a huge part of his charm, what made me root for him was seeing his heart above his hate or need to prove himself.

He's damaged but he's not broken, he refuses to give up on the things he wants and he too grows as throughout the story.

Shoot the Moon brought me back to a series it seems I've been too long without re-reading, brought back characters I love and some I didn't.

While I was rooting for Razor I was also wanting Lexi knocked down a few notches.

This book is beyond filthy, it's so freaking hot you'll need ice! Razor may have just become my favorite Scorpio Stinger brother!

Book 6 in the series and each book just gets better and better.

We know about Lexi from the previous books, she's Jade's cousin and a girl I hated because she was always after Ryder who is Jade's old man. He's more like an unobtainable obsession for her.

Razor is the impulsive hothead that you call when things go bad and he's wanted Lexi since he set eyes in her but he knows all about her feelings for Ryder.

As I said I didn't like her previously but this book let me understand her, that's one part that I would gladly gone back and thumped her dad. She feels unworthy of love and inferior to her cousins do she try's to steer clear of relationships.

Razor I just loved him, if ever there was a tough man with a soft centre then he's it. I thought I knew him but boy was I do wrong about him.

This for me was different from the rest of the series, yes there's club drama but it focuses more on the two main characters, it's raw, emotional and the writing is sublime.

"You think love is like a light switch?"

Shoot The Moon is different from the other books in this series. It's a short look into the lives of Razor and Lexi. Lexi is Jade's cousin. She's almost her opposite. Jade is Ryder's princess, and on the soft side. Lexi is bold and colorful with a big mouth and a curvy inked body. She's exactly what Razor wants, but he's not what she's looking for. She's so focused on someone else that Razor can't seem to get her attention. So, he bides his time, waiting for her to realize that the one she wants is not right for her.

I really enjoyed getting to know Razor better. There's a lot more to him than just muscles and the talent that got him his road name. He's been kind of overshadowed by his brothers Cobra & Ryder, the club president and VP. He's been content to stay in the background, until now. Things have changed. He's changed. And it's time for him to prove himself and take what he wants. As he's mentioned before, "The heart wants what the heart wants." but will he get what it wants? It's not looking good for him so far, especially since, "That's all I ever get from her. Sass and attitude." But don't let him fool you. He loves her sass and attitude. The question is, will she ever see what's right in front of her? Or will it take a wake-up-call to get her attention? Will the threat of losing what she claims she doesn't want be what it takes? She thinks she's hiding. But he sees her. He's always seen her. It's time for her to see him, before it's too late...

“His eyes were ablaze and a wicked smile spread over his face, crinkling the corners of his eyes. There was something about Razor I couldn’t quite put my finger on. A shift of sorts I could only sense but not explain.”

Shoot the Moon is book #6 in the Scorpio Stinger MC series, but it can be read as a standalone novel.

Overall Shoot the Moon was an enjoyable addition to the Scorpio Stinger series. I loved Razor, I'm so glad it's his turn for a story. He was loyal, strong, possessive and he just knew that Lexi was it for him. Lexi on the other hand... let's just say it took me a bit to warm up to her. In the beginning, she just comes across as completely selfish and downright bi*chy, not my cup of tea. 'Spitfire' was a good choice of word to describe her. But not to worry, as you see glimpses of her soft and vulnerable side and learn of her insecurities, she begins to grow on you.

Love isn't always easy, and it sure takes these two a while to finally come together, but I enjoyed watching their story unfold. Shoot the Moon was an intriguing story, it was intense, gritty and sexy. If you like MC series, I recommend checking this one out! 3.5*stars

Jani Kay

4 stars

A release to accompany the Scorpio Stringer MC Series you can read as a standalone. This is Razor's story. Rugged and raw – bearded and beautiful in his way Razor is ready to ride it out with Lexi. Watching her from afar and seeing her so called love for a man that doesn't want her and is very taken, Razor only wants the chance to show the woman who he is and who he can be for her. Yet Lexi isn't ready to see it. Jealousy and lust for a man who doesn't know she exists is blinding her from what is right in front of her.

Lexi is a complex character. Actually I'm trying not to use hateful words against the woman. I couldn't stand her. Sorry but she was bitter, rude, full of herself and just down right mean to women she included her friends and family. I would have beat her ass. But yes .. this type of character makes for good writing and of course I kept turning the pages. The act of getting Mia in to trouble alone ticked me off so much I wanted to smack her. As you can see she more than ticked me off. HA!

Razor is a great man. I loved his character before and love him more now. He is more than you will imagine. Jani has outdone herself with this one. I'm pretty sure Razor is my favorite from this series.

I love the cover – I love the story and I love the series. Great read and thank you Jani for the ARC. You never disappoint in your writing and your characters. Sit back and get ready. Razor is here.

This book was given to me for an honest review.

3.5 stars

With all honesty I don't know if this is the best rating for this book. I want to tell you in advance I have not read this series and this is the first one that I have read. With that being said, I believe I missed a lot of the back story since this is the sixth in the series. I absolutely loved the characters in the story. I think they meshed very well together and what all of them bring to the table was unique. Something bad went down in the other books, don't know exactly what, but it landed there president in the hospital, their vp is in LA and well the story goes on from there. But it was more about Razor and Lexi in this book and I loved both of them in this book. Their high maintenance attitudes were great and the chemistry between the two was awesome. The bonus scenes at the beginning of this book were awesome. I loved seeing a year before and what started the relationship between these two. It was definitely a love hate relationship, but more love in the end.

Everyone is on lockdown. I don't know what happened but there it is. Razor and Lexi are fighting their attraction, but Razor has had enough. So a bet is placed and Lexi accepts, but only problem is there will be consequences. So that is how their story begins. 7 days, but in those 7 days a lot is happening. Razor wants to be president, Cobra the president is in the hospital, Lexi is trying to get over what she feels for Ryder, Lexi has to deal with a bet, Lexi gets in trouble, oh and someone is trying to kill the whole mc. Typical biker days. I just have to say that there is a lot that goes on in this book and it is a fast read, but the problem for me is a lot is unsaid in this book. I don't know if this is how these books end so it can continue, but no epilogue to tie anything together and there were too many questions for me left. These two made the story and I loved it, but the background stuff was just as important and it was left undone in my opinion. So hence my rating.

I loved this story, but I needed more. Loved how it was written and I was in it till the end. I just wish I had more.

Shoot The Moon is the #6 book in the Series and like i said at the end of my review for Road To Destiny i was really looking forward to Razor and Lexi's story as i have a love/hate feeling going on with these two!!

Do i still have that feeling well hell no i've got to say Jani Kay out did herself with this one. I loved Razor and Lexi by the end of this book. Did i want to scream and shout at them? Yes especially Lexi!! but Razor he well and truly stole my heart yes he's a hot head but when it came to Lexi he was all in and never hid his feelings towards her. He was completely different when it came to her and i really enjoyed seeing this side of him.

"Lexi brought silence to the nagging in my mind, deviating my thoughts from darkness to her. I was consumed by my Spitfire, needing to be near her every waking moment."

Am i going to give all the detail way of this book NO because their story is a Must read of this series. They are fire and passion, they rubbed each other the wrong and right way all the time and well and truly took my emotions everywhere but i loved and devoured this book. This couple was always meant to be and the ending was perfect for them.

If you love a great MC read this Series is one for you!!

I received a copy of this book in exchange for an honest review for Stephanie's Book Reports.

This is the sixth book in Jani Kay's Scorpio Stinger MC series. This is Razor and Lexi's story. Shoot The Moon is a standalone novella.

Razor has always lived in the shadow of his other brothers. In the shadows is a place he is sick of being. He now finds himself with some heavy boots to fill. Lexi on the other hand is a wild woman. She's out of control. She won't be told what to do and her filthy mouth has gotten her in to more messes than she can count. Razor wants Lexi from the first moment he sees her. Lexi however is in love with someone she can't have. Get ready for the fight as Lexi fights Razor tooth and nail while he is determined to claim her.

I have to start out with admitting that in the beginning I was not a Lexi fan. She did grow on me as the book went on. She's only got eyes for Ryder and is so devious in trying to get him, I found myself thinking who the heck would do this? She's in the beginning so selfish but grows into a character who will finally take responsibility for their actions. Don't get discouraged if you find yourself not a fan of Lexi and put the book down though. The reward is so worth it to keep reading. Razor is all alpha with a heart of gold. He, like Lexi, has a past that he just can't seem to get out from under. One things for sure he wants Lexi and he's not taking no for an answer. Shoot The Moon is an emotional rollercoaster ride for sure. It is also a book where you get to witness great growth in both the main characters. I really liked that about this book. It's also full of moment that will have you fanning yourself even though it's twenty degrees outside.

Jani Kay as always has written a book that MC loving reader are all sure to enjoy.

Shannon says

This is one of those books that I find hard to review. I've really enjoyed the previous books in this series- I've loved Ryder and Jade and Cobra and Mia. And I really like Razor's character. But I kind of felt a disconnect between him and Lexi. More specifically Lexi. If I'm being honest I really did not like her right from the beginning. I didn't like how she treated Razor, at all. And while I warmed up slightly towards her in the end, in my eyes I don't feel she ever fully redeemed herself for things she did and how she acted. I would have liked to have seen more growth from her character.

Both Razor and Lexi are complex characters. Their upbringings caused quite a bit of damage to each of them, leaving them both feeling unworthy of being loved. Razor has always been kind of in the background, overshadowed by both Cobra and Ryder. But he's come to the point where he's tired of being the forgotten man- he's ready to make some changes and prove his worth as an important member of the Scorpio Stingers.

On top of that, he's tired of waiting around for Lexi to get over her unrequited crush on an unattainable man, so he's out to show her he's the man for her.

Lexi has always wanted the one man she could never have, but that hasn't stopped her from pining after him, even after she knows she'll never have a chance. Girl, sometimes you just have to cut your losses!

Shoot the Moon is darker and grittier than the other books in this series. But at the heart of it is the love story between Razor and Lexi. Theirs is not an easy love story, nor is it a conventional one by any means. But for these 2 people, who feel so undeserving of love, it just fit. Sometimes it just takes one act, one little moment, to show you what's been right in front of you all along.

While reading Shoot the Moon, Lexi & Razor really played with my emotions and had me wanting to throw my tablet so many times!!

They played a cat/mouse game. Lexi was so infuriating and hard headed that I wanted to smack some sense into her. She was brutally honest and not footstool for anyone.

Razor has wanted Lexi since the first time he saw her but she's always had a thing for Ryder but he has only eyes for her cousin Jade. Try as she might to get Ryder's attention she ends up getting Razor's and he's ready to make her his and his' only!

These two hot headed people were infuriating an loving at the same time. To be honest, I'm not sure how Razor kept his calm because Lexi tested his patience constantly.

There is so much passion with these two that I had to get relief from all the aching they caused me.

Be prepared to have your heart run a marathon not knowing if it will make it to the end! ! Kara, 4.5 Stars

"Lexi brought silence to the nagging in my mind, deviating my thoughts from darkness to her. I was consumed by my Spitfire, needing to be near her every waking moment."

Just like everyone else, I've been waiting for Razor and Lexi's story. While this book can be read as a standalone, I do recommend you read the other books in the series. Not only is it a good series but there is a bit of history between Lexi and Razor. Although this book does show you some of it, the build up that we got in the other books is the reason why so many of us have been waiting for their story.

Razor's history is embedded with the Scorpio Stinger MC. He is related to the current president and he believes that he rightful has a chance to take over one day. The main problem with that is that some people don't really believe in him. He's hot headed and his temper can get the best of him. Surprisingly, there's one person that can calm him. He's wanted her the second she started working at the MC bar. They have a past and have hooked up but she's pining after his VP, Ryder. Will he be able to show her that he's the man for her or will he have to give her up?

Lexi's past has caused her to seriously guard her heart. She's one feisty girl and she's as wild as they come. She can't and won't be caged. She lives her life with the freedom that she so desperately seeks. Although she's made it known that she wants one particular man, Razor seems to be getting under her skin. She fights everything that is Razor yet he somehow keeps her attention. Sometimes the good kind attention. Sometimes the bad kind of attention. Will she get the one man that she's been chasing after or will Razor be able to win her heart?

This story had the perfect mix of the MC danger, hardcore members and love. The suspense was there but what I really enjoyed was how much of a badass Lexi is. She's feisty and she isn't afraid to speak her mind. I also like that she's kind of one of the boys. She can hang with the men like the boss that she is.

I also enjoyed how much Razor knew what he wanted and he went after it. I enjoyed how cocky he was and how he knew exactly what to do in order to push Lexi's buttons. You see him becoming more of the leader in this book that he always knew he would be yet we get to see his vulnerable side. His soft spot for Lexi was heartwarming. Add the fact that he has one hell of a mouth on him. and you've got one desirably dark and delicious man.

Overall, I really enjoyed this book. It was exactly what I needed for Lexi and Razor's story. You don't want to miss out on this couple. Trust me.

I couldn't put this book down. .Razor and Lexi are dynamite together..not only because they are both headstrong and have no filters, but because their chemistry is crazy!

Razor might be a crazy badass that is as cocky as he is skilled, but he hides a very soft part of him, his heart and his insecurities..He always had to prove himself and even with this crazy woman he has to go all in all and fight for what he wants.

Lexi is wild and has no filter. She is strong and sexy..but not many people see behind her façade..She hides it well, but even she can feel the kick in the gut when the man she wants doesn't even notice her and she never seem to be enough.

Til about half away, the story was kinda smooth sailing..well these two were driving each other and me crazy lol..and the sex a cents were hot..but after that..well let's say adrenaline spiked and suddenly danger was becoming very real and pain a very near possibility.. my heart rate just slowed down lol

Another great story for this author, that combines hot, fun and banter with depth and danger.
