According to the lycan legend, there is only one true love for everyone. Matthew Walker has already met his true love, but she died two hundred years ago. He does not have any delusions he will fall in love again, nor does he want to. Matt has accepted to live the rest of his existence alone. Then he meets Madison "Maddy" O'Reilly and everything changes for him, especially his belief in the lycan legend.

Maddy is relieved the wicked witch is finally dead, but there is one thing left to do before the spell is broken. She needs the witch's wand to destroy it and the curse that has haunted her family for centuries will finally end. Maddy's mission brings her to Matt and she asks him for help. She knows he has the wand. In fact, she knows more than she's telling him. Things he won't believe.

The lycan legend is clear. There is only one true love for everyone.

Deborah says

After the last book I wasn't sure if I'd continue on with this series but after checking I noticed this book featured Matt and someone called Mandy so I decided to give it a go since I'd had enough of Leo and Sam and wouldn't have continued if this book had been theirs.

Matt's 'one' died two hundred years ago so he's not looking for love he knows his one chance has gone, but then Maddy walks into his office knowing more about him, his life and Leo than she should, and he's drawn to her and he can't understand why, he feels thing he never thought he would and he dreams about her, what does it mean.

This book is back on track it's an enjoyable romance with lycans and witches, Matt and Maddy are both great and Effy is an interesting little character, and she's young so I'll forgive her her 'Sam' moment.

Great fast read. I was really happy to see the story continue for this series, and even more happy to see that book 5 is coming out in March! Matt and Maddy are wonderful characters and I can't wait to see what happens in book 5.

Could have been much better.

The little niece of Maddy upseted me. It was the way the author makes her behave, it just killed me: I want I want I want...

Matt's behaviot is a bit silly too and sickening. Everything is marvellous, he tooks to much Xanax I think. I have not just stuck with the character's personalities.
