Kitten in the Candy Corn Ben M. Baglio

Halloween is just a few days away, and Mandy Hope and her best friend James Hunter are ecstatic to begin the celebration. But their plans are put on hold when their friend John's family receives a package full of candy corn from America, and as the friends begin chowing down they discover that a black Burmese kitten with orange eyes is hiding beneath the sticky treat.

Clare says

This book is great for anyone who loves animals and likes all the other books in this series. There are parts where you know ther is rusling and you think something bad will happen but a cute little kitten pops out.

Twyla says

Many and James's friend got some candy corn and they had to come taste it.They found a cat and found it a home.Auryn

Rated by my daughter

Definitely not one of my favorite mommy/daughter books. But my daughter loved it so who cares what I think? Lol

Taylor Troncin says

Loved this series when I was younger. Still a huge animal lover and would like to read the rest of this series!

Jazli Lopez says

I liked this book because it happened during Halloween, and I love scary things.

Audrey Cutlip says

I liked it but it really did not keep my interest as much as I hoped it would. Although it was really a cute book.

Elle says

In Kitten in the candy corn, Mandy is visiting a friend, when his mom screams. She and John find his mom in the kitchen. She claims that the candy on the counter is moving. When Mandy leans over the box, a black kitten jumps out of the candy corn. When she doesn't see a collar there is no question that the kitten was abandoned. Then one question remains- can they find a home for the kitten before Halloween?

I liked this book a lot. I liked that the kitten was energetic and fun. I also liked that Mandy and James try so hard to help an animal in need of a good home.

I recommend this book for any one who can read. I also recommend it for people who love animals.

this was a very cute and funny one i loved reading

Violet Garcia says

I really enjoyed the book Kitten in the Candy Corn. It was a very funny book. I was very surprised when a kitten popped out of the candy. It sounded crazy when the cat was running around with paint and staining everything! I enjoyed the ending when the kitten now had an owner. It also looks very cute in the front photo. I enjoyed this book because I like cats a lot. This book is a good book for people who like cats.

Another good kids book! This one was inscribed "Katie May 2006." My kids have outgrown them, but this is a great series! The Animal Ark has a visit from "Pumpkin" a small black kitten at Halloween time. The kids help find out about vandalism in their town and find a new home for the abandoned kitten.

Kayla says

The first Animal Ark book I ever read, and I LOVED IT!

Callie Stillion says

This was a wonderful five-star book! Mandy finds a kitten in the candy corn, yet this is why it is called Kitten in the Candy Corn!

Ms.Greenwood thinks she is afraid of cats, until she meets Pumpkin! Pumpkin is a sweet black cat, and a Burmese. "Burmese are a lot like dogs," Mandy remarked, "so why don't you consider Pumpkin? She is sweet and a Burmese!"

Westcoast_girl says

I reread this book many times as a child because it is a Halloween book. There aren't many of those!

This is a cute read and great for any animal lover.
