Is it me or is there a tension between Yano and Pin?? I've been feeling this from volume 20, I guess. Actually, even before that. Pin is really hot though and it would be so cool because Pin isn't that old and all... Yano and Pin... hmmm... Cute!
Chizu and Ryuu... finally... eek! So cute! So cute!
Shota and Sawako... oops! I think something bad is brewing between them... I hope it's not too bad! Shota is just okay with Sawako attending another university. It is obvious he doesn't want to be separated from her and neither does Sawako. But Shota misunderstanding her again is not going to be good this time.

Now I can read the chapters 100 and 101. Rest, I'll have to wait till they are available online. I'm wondering, should I read the next two chapters or wait till more chapters come out online.

This was all kinds of beautiful and there's such a sense that things are coming to an end and I am, internally, rather emotional. IT TOOK SO LONG TO GET HERE. AND SUCH DRAMA. AND IT WAS WORTH EVERYTHING.

Yue says

My children Kaze and Sawako are so sweet! One year of dating XD I can't believe this beautiful manga comes to an end :(

Anyway, this volume is about their last school festival. Sawako as a school teacher looks so nice XD She grew up so much, she is popular but still as cute as ever ^_^

Chizu and Ryu... she is hilarious when she is alone with him. He doesn't give a damn but she is always flustered XD and she hates to be like that but he finds her cute <3

Something is going on between Ayane and Pin. Go Pin! He looks handsome with his hair down (*o*)

Not a very long review, I just want to put my thoughts out to the world. :D

This was yet another magnificent volume, though I do wonder how long the series will continue. Sawako is now in her last year, she is preparing (as are her friends) for entrance exams and future things. Maybe the manga will continue later with them in college, but I don't know, it just feels like the author is tying up the last strings, finishing the last things. Maybe I am wrong, but that is the impression I get from this (and also the last few) volume(s).

Like with the other volumes we see Sawako and Kazehaya, but also Chizu and Ryu, and (YES YES YES) Ayane and Pin. Well, OK the last one is just a hope of mine, but considering the hints that were thrown in this (and also other) volume(s), I am just hoping that they will get together when Ayane graduates. They would just make the perfect couple, they have real chemistry and their moments (though sparingly) are just soooooo cute and sweet (though of course, often Pin just ruins it by doing something, arghhhh. I do hope that it is just Pin being worried about the direction this thing is taking, and not his normal prank-a-lot personality).

Ryu and Chizu's relationship is really flying, and I am delighted to see it, it took them so long and now they are finally together (though it is still awkward for both).

Of course Sawako and Kazehaya's relationship, and Sawako's growth to be more mature is the most important part of the manga, and I do love them together, however it felt a bit weird and off in this one. They are celebrating their 1 year anniversary, and they have a lot of cute moments, but it just feels forced and out of place. It is a shame.

The ending made me afraid for a bit, I won't say what happened, but Boy I was thinking they were going to do x, but instead something else happened. Thankfully!

I will be eagerly awaiting the next volume, I just hope that we see more romance with Kazehaya and Sawako. (Come on guys you have been together for a year, kiss already or at least kiss more!)

Aquí están las 5 estrellas solo por Chizu & Ryu, amo su historia chorrocientos mil veces más que la de Sadako & Kazehaya en este instante, además, les metieron un mega drama por la elección de universidades que fastidió.

Yay, it's a plot advancement volume this time. A slow, barely perceptible advancement, but as long as time keeps moving forward in the story, we're sure to get to the end of the damned series eventually.

Even if this wasn't such an intense volume as the previous one, I still love it to pieces.

The school year is drawing closer to an end. Yano is single and working toward her goals for school. Sawako and Kurumi are working together toward their own goals. Chizu is still struggling with Ryu's decision, and also trying to figure out what being a couple with him is like. Kazehaya and Sawako are doing their best to spend time together and do what they can before they graduate.

Sawako has ignored her want to go to a different school far away, but it's Kazehaya who knows that's what she's going to do. There's a super sweet, sad moment between them at the end of the volume, as Sawako messes up what she tries to tell him. They just hurt my heart I love them so much.

There's a school festival, and Sawako does her best to scare people. Sawako and Kazehaya have officially been together a year now. Chizu and Ryu even have a flirty little moment, where Chizu freaks out and ruins it. Yano and Kento are getting along relatively well, and Yano has a moment with Pin. I have been waiting for that, seriously.

There should be some serious conversations happening soon, and I'm excited and nervous for it. I can't wait for more.
