Harouna says

harry and song lee have a kickball wedding of love

Jamie says

My children loved reading this book.

Sonia says

An okay story about a boy who confesses to a crush but filled with many stereotypes when it comes to grouping kids, thier ethnicity, and the traits they have. first grade level story in my opinion.

Catherine Louise says

my baby books: horrible harry series

Mustang says

It was cute how harry and song lee got married and how they ended up not doing it.

Dolly says

This is another interesting story in the Horrible Harry series by Suzy Kline and Frank Remkiewicz. We've read several of the books in this series and found them to be funny, short, and entertaining.

This story has a Valentine's Day theme and features Harry and his friends getting ready for a wedding ceremony. The story is short and entertaining and we really enjoyed reading it together. We will be sure to read more of the books in this series soon.

Maria says

This book is great with a few twists. It's a great story to read with your child who's just a beginner or a child that's great at reading on his/her own. It's a real story with humorous outtakes with the characters. A must read.

Michael says

cool beginner chapter book for children to get into reading.

Maria says

Harry always have scary ideas. When Sid starts talking about his mother wedding. Harry get a terrific idea about horrible Valentine's Day!

emily says

haha im only going to mark this one as read, evenif i read the others too, but i like this one the BEST!

Twyla says

horrible harry was going to be married then he married kickball.Auryn 8yo

Callie Stillion says

I enjoyed this book. This was a book that I liked. I enjoy that these books are really funny and they teach lesson in some of them.

Tierra Garr says

If you have read books from the series than you know its no secret that Harry likes Song Lee. Read about what Harry does that makes Sidney feel a little better about his mother's wedding.

Kayla says

This book was about a boy who had to invite his friends to his mom's wedding, but didn't really want to. The group of students then decided to have a wedding of their own. One of the students had never been to a wedding before so his best friend wanted to show him what it was all about. When it was time for the wedding everyone was ready and prepared. In the middle of the ceremony another student came up asking the groom if he wanted to play kickball. Of course the groom went and then followed the bride. The students were upset they missed the wedding so they boy finally handed out the invitations to his mom's wedding. The students would actually see a wedding after all.

Bonnie says

This month has been filled with weddings for me to attend. When I saw this title I just had to pick it up and wasn't disappointed. Suzy Kline spins a wedding tale from the perspective of a 2nd grader named Doug, and his friends.

Doug's friend Sidney has marriage and weddings on his mind because his mom is getting married and he doesn't want to be in it or give out the invitations, he has been carrying in his pocket for a few days, to his friends.

Harry decides to ask Song Lee to marry him on Valentine's Day. Song Lee's friends Mary and Ida plan the whole thing. Harry also loves to play pranks on his friends.

Can't tell you any more than that... spoilers you know. ;)
