Faking to be real

I voluntarily read an advanced readers copy of this book and will definitely recommend it to anyone. It's a sad book but worth reading. Gavin's mother is dying of cancer and all she wants is to make sure her son is taking care of by someone who loves him when she's gone. She makes him promise to be married before she dies. Madeline hears his promise and offers to be his fake wife for a price. This makes Gavin mad but he does it. They just don't know that doing this is going to cost them more than the money he's going to pay to Maddie. I cried, laughed and cheered reading this book. Great book!

Gavins mum only has 6 months to live and she wants to see her only son get married and settled before she goes

Maddie needs money, she hears about Gavins plight and offers to do it for half a million dollars. Gavin's mum loves Maddie so he has no choice, but he thinks Maddie is a gold digger and does not like her

This is a beautifully written, and at times emotional romance story. I love the chemistry between Maddie and Gavin and how their relationship grows. The writer really draws the reader in and you feel for both characters. I really enjoyed this book and I highly recommend it, I think this is my favourite Claire Adams story to date

Wow. This is not just a love story or fake fiance story. Claire Adams pulls all your emotions out and leaves you in a puddle. I am not ashamed to say that I cried more than a few tears in reading this book. But, it was worth it! Such a good story of family, passion, loss and betrayal. You will get swept away from the very beginning. I could not put this one down! I voluntarily reviewed an advanced copy of this book.

Although I read every single page, this is not a favorite of mine. There are a couple of chapters that are very well written though, the chapter when Gavins' mother passed, the very last chapter & the epilogue so I couldn't give it less than 3 stars. :) I did not like Gavin, he was mean and hateful to Madeline, no I didn't agree with how she propositioned him either but he took it way too far & I think she let her career aspirations mislead her. I really like her parents too, there's just so much sadness and not enough love and happiness to outweigh those emotions. The beginning also seemed to drag a bit too long before the plot was initiated.

Two things I would change to make this book better. First, Gavin should have still been running his fathers business- I really did not think someone would sell a family business for billions to pay for his mothers medical bills. If the company was worth all that money why would they need to sell? It bothered me that he was only rich because his father who passed away grew a business. The second thing I would change is develop the story line between Gavin and Maddie so that although she agreed to be the fake fiancee for money you knew they had formed an interest beforehand. After all, his best friend was her cousin. I would think that they probably encountered each other along the way. Although these things hindered the story for me, it was a nice story of self sacrifice for those you love.

Gavin's mother's dying wish is to see her son married before she dies. Gavin is a billionaire and has no intention of getting married. He sold his father's shipping company to pay for his mother's medical expenses and is content just to spend time with her and his boat. He still has billions but money is not that important to him. His childhood friend Maddie overheard his mother say that her only wish was to see him married before she dies. So she offers to play the role of fake fiance for half a million dollars. He is outraged and thinks she 's a gold digger. His mother loves Maddie so he really has no choice if he wants to make his Mother happy. Gavin and Maddie got off to a rocky start as he does not think she has any substance and is concerned about money and trivial things. The chemistry is amazing between them and in many ways they help each other grow and learn what is important in life. No spoiler here but I'll says it's a great book that might may you shed a tear or too. I received an arc copy of this book and voluntarily chose to review it.

Laila Viking says

Gavin and Maddie are the main characters in this novel. Gavin has a mother who is dying and wants to see him married. Maddie struggles with her actress carrier and needs money. They make a deal that she has to play his fiance.

I had to read a few chapters because the story started out slow but then it caught me. Both main characters have big trust issues and that makes them struggle to go on in their lives and have relationships. They are childhood friends and knows a lot about each other which makes it a bit easier for them. The chemistry between them is so hot and steamy scenes comes out of it. The novel has drama, twists and turns, emotions and makes you think about what is the main thing in life.

I can only recommend this sweet romance novel.

Gavin lost his father a few years ago and his mother is dying of cancer. He feels like his life is falling apart. He sold the family business for billions which helps him pay his mother's medical bills but he is at loose ends. His mother's only wish is that Gavin gets a girlfriend and settles down. Gavin only has one friend Ron who he grew up playing with.

Maddie is from a poorer family struggling with debts. Maddie and her best friend have had a dream of becoming successful models/actresses. To be successful, they have to have a presence on social media and gain new followers everyday. They have to be constantly taking selfies and posting which is getting a little old. Her friend has just been given a big modeling job in California but Madison is still struggling. Her cousin Ron invites her to his friend's dinner where his mother announces she is losing her battle with cancer.

Maddie overhears Gavin and his mother discussing her last wishes. She decides that they can help each other out. She could marry him and be a loving wife until his mother dies and in return he could pay her half a million dollars which she could use to help her family and give her career the boost it needs.

Gavin is horrified by her proposition and has a low opinion of her. However his mom's failing help and last wish makes him finally agree. Gavin and Maddie pretend they are in love and get married. Somehow though the pretending might be turning real.

This is a good book but I wasn't too thrilled with the shallow heroine. I voluntarily received a copy of this book and this is my honest review.

Excellent story.

Gavin's mother only has 6 months to live and her dying wish is for Gavin to get married.

Maddie offers to be a fake wife for Gavin to grant his mother's wish. Only she want half a million dollars to do it

Gavin is a total jerk through most of this book, and treats Maddie awfully.

Maddie takes it because she feels extremely guilty for wanting money off him in the first place.

But by the end of the book they both realise how much they actually love one another.

They get their happy ending even though Gavin's mother died

A great story by a excellent author.

I volunteered for a arc of this book

I LOVED Gavin and Maddie's story and its emotional rollercoaster had me tearing up, scorching mad and laughing within a few pages. Yes, Maddie is fake and unlikeable to begin with but we soon see that she grows and learn there is more to life than what she is aiming for and with the realisation that money doesn't buy you happiness it's thus revelation that begins to see her develop.

I loved Gavin from the start. He isn't your typical rich play boy that many author write but a man who is loving, caring and generous if only he can learn to trust. Together these two make a great pair and by the end you are so glad for their HEA.

Claire Adam's has once again produced a story that's worth reading and one that will stick with you long after you have finished it.

4.5 stars Excellent contemporary billionaire romance. Gavin lost his father years ago. When his mother was diagnosed with cancer he sold his dad's company to insure the best treatments for his mom. Gavin was close to his parents and his best friend, Ron. Ron's cousin Maddie came for a visit and reconnected with Gavin and his mom. His mom's one wish was to see Gavin happily married. Maddie took advantage of that and offered to be his fake fiance for a price. Through most of the story Gavin was very hard on Maddie. Maddie felt a lot of guilt about her proposition with Gavin. There are touches of humor, anger, hurt, sadness and joy. It took a while in the story to realize why Maddie chose to act the way she did. I received a complementary copy of this book and chose to write a review. I look forward to reading future books by this author.

This was a good story about Gavin's mom only having so much time before she passes and her wish is for her son to have a wife and too be happy. Maddie has the solution as comes up with being Gavin's fake fiancée for a price. Gavin is angry about Maddie taking advantage of the situation but Gavin wants his mom to be happy. Gavin was a real jerk too Maddie when it was clear she wanted more. Both have been hurt before but when real feeling develop can Gavin get passed how they started out. I didn't like Gavin at first, I get why he was pissed at Maddie but he had too see how genuine she really was. Good story with very sad parts but the ending was really sweet.
