Fun, Fast-Paced and Outrageous

Romance and mystery lead this thrilling romp around Europe, immersing the reader in a world of wealth, power, passion and twisted misdeeds.

Annabelle Moon has experienced random psychic premonitions her entire life, but she's kept them a secret ever since her parents told her others would ostracize her for them. But when she has a vision that helps the police rescue a kidnapped child, the cat's out of the bag, and it ultimately leads her to take some big steps including a divorce from her rich, powerful and cheating ex-husband.

Anna starts a new life on her own with a big settlement from her ex, but before she can decide on a next step, a friend in England talks her into leaving Manhattan for The Cotswolds to help track down her lost sister. The hope is that Anna can use her psychic gifts, but she has no idea how to control them. Still, she's pretty good at solving puzzles and tries to meld both talents to solve the mystery. Turns out, they're a pretty hot combination.

Then, of all things, Annabelle runs into the most difficult yet mesmerizing man she's ever met. And even though romance is the last thing on her mind after her recent divorce, will this tall, infuriating Englishman wear down her defenses?

Great romp!

This is a wonderful story with a little bit of everything, romance, adventure, suspense, and funny to boot. Fun to read!

Wonderful!

Loved this book! Great story and a quick read, I didn't want to put it down. I can't wait to start reading book #2!

If you want a few hours of fun yet intelligent reading, this is the book! The main character, Annabelle (Anna) is a beautiful, newly divorced young woman who is just learning to use her psychic abilities. The book begins with a dream that helps Anna save a young child from a kidnapper and then leads us on to England in an adventure laden with romance and intrigue set in the world of the supernatural. This is the first book of a new series and I can hardly wait for the second!

I won this book in a first-reads giveaway.

I honestly didn't like this book at all. I found it to be one of the most shallow books I have read. The focus seemed to be on sex and money, and honestly the sex scenes weren't even all that great. There wasn't any depth to Anna the main character or any of the characters really. It was extremely predictable. I had to force myself to finish this book.

I almost made it to the halfway point before getting fed up with the heroine. First she's portrayed as some weak simpering thing who let her husband take over her life. But boy did she get a taste for first class and it was constantly being rubbed in our faces (not that I'd want to eat caviar but let's face it most people reading this book couldn't afford 99% of the things discussed here), why not make her appealing? A simple girl who was never comfortable in the rich trappings her hubby piled on would've been a lot more appealing than this girl who frankly came off as a snob. Then there's the oh i'm done with rich men. Ok. throws herself at the first available rich man "Oh it's just a fling shut up best friend he'd never use me and toss me aside like all his other conquests because I'm special!" Uh huh.... two chapters later "on my next honeymoon...could this guy that i've just met and gone on one half date be my next husband?!" Um...wut? I literally don't understand how we got there and that was where i finally gave up. Also the whole science stuff behind the paranormal was really dense and i didn't actually understand any of it...but mostly the ridiculous heroine was what killed this for me. DNF

Maybe it is not fair to review a book if have not finished (yet?). A book has to hook me in and this one did. However, at chapter 7 I was losing interest and I started skimming.

I actually did not like the main character, Annabelle. OK, so she was just fresh out of college when she meets a handsome rich man 15 years her senior. She gets to be his trophy wife, lives in luxury and when she is not happy it is all his fault. He MADE her this way. Owkayyyy...

And then she divorces him after a marriage of 5 years (he cheats, how convenient) and she gets a whopping 10 million dollars and a New York townhouse.

Well, she was not such an innocent not to sign a prenup where she gets this load of money, right?

I don't know, I just could not stand her whole attitude. Rich, no job, moaning about the fact she is ditched by her 'friends'. She arrives in England and immediately wants to jump the hunky gardener (is he married, girlfriend? Don't know, she just wants him).

And then she snags another rich guy (billionaire!!) and even threatens her ex husband she will have her new rich boyfriend destroy him.

No, just no.
