Love these stories

I am becoming quite fond of Victoria, BC. And now Alberta. The Descriptions of some of the scenery are great. The stories are easy to read and catching. Hard to put down.

In the Forever Series each story has gotten better as the series progresses. I'm glad I continued on after the first book I was not sure if I could continue. So far Forever My Love is my favorite. Mack is physically broken along with her spirit. Then she decides it's time to move on change the direction of her life, then Joel shows up. This is not instant love and you see how Mack and Joel grow. Mona Ingram does a good job of getting the back story in a few pages so you know where the characters are coming from. I liked Mack and her tough no nonsense ways.

Victoria says

It is a great book to read

Sheila Dugan says

Enjoyable

A light easy read, fairly predictable. Good descriptions of the story setting as well as all of the characters in the story.

Nancy says

I just started the latest book in this series; I've really enjoyed the Canadian settings, Vancouver and its surrounding islands...so much that I can envision traveling to visit that beautiful area. The characters are interesting, their stories varied, and, since I'm on the seventh book, you know I like them!

Mary Stockwell says

Great novella

I love this pleasant and enjoyable novella. Even though I'm not a knowledgeable horse person, I enjoyed reading about the life that revolves around them. This story also makes me want to visit Victoria, Canada more than ever.

Debie Miller says

Good

The story in the beginning was hard to get into. But more I read I like it more. Good writing.

Merle says

This one is almost too brief. I'd have liked a little more story about Blake and Patricia, the Calgary Ball, and Adam, Dylan and Erica. I hope the intertwined stories continue.
