"The world is waiting. Do you hear God calling your name?"

If you've never read or heard Christine Caine, then you are definitely missing out! She is no stranger to James River and I have had the pleasure of hearing her speak for several years now. She is witty, hilarious, wise, and has a serious anointing upon her that tells you exactly what you need to hear in a way that just captivates you and makes you listen. Christine Caine and Priscilla Shire are my most favorite inspirational speakers of this day, and if you have never heard or read them, then you need to stop reading this right now and go to the store and get yourself some blessin'!

Whew. So as you can tell, I love Christine Caine! The woman is blessed with a gift and uses it to its full ability. This book is the devotional companion to her book, Undaunted, where we get a glimpse into where Caine came from and how she came to be who she is today. I won't go too in-depth about that because I plan on reviewing it, but I'll just tell you that if you're questioning your purpose in life in the slightest bit, you need to grab that book!

I was so excited to see that Living Life Undaunted was available for me to review! I've been using reading it to my salon girls at work and it's been so inspiring and hopeful for us. A lot of times, devotionals leave you wanting more, but there is still plenty that you are able to reflect on and apply to your every day life. Her devotionals are practical and applicable, and I like that.

Everything is divided by the day of the year, so you can keep your place and be sure you don't miss out. A lot of times, devotional books can get repetitive or mundane, but Living Life Undaunted does not.

I would recommend this for everyone! Christine Caine is very real and inspirational, and you won't be sorry. But don't stop here! Be sure to hear her speak or check out her other books as well, I promise you will not be disappointed!

My Review:

The author's beautiful and seamless delivery of commentary really speaks to your heart and not just once but daily as you begin to read, Living Life Undaunted. An amazing book that reaches you where you are to breath life back into your tired old bones. Her words help encourage and enlighten you to never give up. She gives you 365 days worth of Biblical knowledge derived from daily life that we all seem to share. April 1st-God's Workmanship encourages us to live in the fact of knowing that whether our births were intentional or unintentional, He has never viewed us being alive based on that. To Him we are not unwanted or unnamed, He has always known who we are.

The comforting words of the author urge us to move forward in the perpetual and very real world of our Father. His love knows no bounds, He loves us yesterday, today, and forever! There are enough devotions in the book to keep for your Bible time reading and visit with the Lord.
