Really a very nice 'coloring journal' geared toward adults. It has different activities/suggestions like coloring by number, connect the dots, thoughtful ideas & also pages just for journaling. It's really very nice looking, nicely put together & held closed with a pink elastic band, maybe about 6x8 inches in size so it fits easily in a bag or purse! This would make a very nice gift!

I received this book free, in a Goodreads First Reads Giveaway program, simply in exchange for my own fair & honest review.

This is pretty neat. It is more than just a coloring book. Every other page is an activity of some sorts. There are dot to dot, color by number, traditional coloring, design your own, and more. On the opposite page is a prompt about writing a thoughtful list, instructions on how to complete the opposite. There are four sections for the seasons. It is a bit smaller than a traditional coloring book. I like that it has an elastic band for holding it together, these help to stop books such as this from flapping open and getting crinkles.

I do feel it important to point out that some of these designs are very detailed and I believe some people with optical issues would find the content hard to complete.

This would make a great gift.

Beautiful, well bound book. Nothing like the flimsy colouring book of your childhood. Gorgeous, varied patterns. Spent a happy, relaxing sunny afternoon colouring and writing outdoors. Also perfect to release your thoughts and relax before sleep. Love it.
