After the nightmare that was Ibiza, Shiraz is overjoyed to be home in Goodmayes, back with her family, her friends...and Wesley of course. Wes and Sooz are finished and it's not long before he's a regular fixture round at 34 Thundersley Road - much to Diane Wood's delight. But Shiraz knows herself...and she knows that there's a big wide world out there, just waiting for the unique charms of SBW. Soon she's writing off for college applications and spending the rest of her time trailing after Carrie Draper, who's hellbent on infiltrating the celebrity circuit. Things get tricky when Shiraz ends up getting a job as PA to a Premier league footballer and his wife - Carrie had her heart set on it and she's furious, but how could Shiraz turn it down? She's not long into the job before Shizza realises that this celebrity lark isn't all it's cracked up to be...And at the end of the day, she really, really wants to be a writer. But what about Wesley? Can she really leave him behind for good?

A. says

This one wasn't as funny as the others, but it was still fun to read. There were some things that I felt bordered on unrealistic, and I would have liked to hear more about the Wood family and the Brunton-Fletchers.

Valerie Christie says

I really enjoyed this, I read it while I was in hospital and it was the perfect read to take my mind off being ill. It's very funny and Shiraz is such a likeable character.

Very funny book. Really kept my interest throughout, and I had finished the book within a couple of hours. Would recommend this book to any YA readers, or just for someone wanting a humourous way to kill some time reading.
