Pilot Steve Lockhart thrived on challenges, but now he's in over his head. He'd just achieved his dream of starting up his own charter service, when he'd gone and fallen hopelessly in love with Casey Jansen, the woman of his dreams -- and the competition. It looked like they would never get together -- until he discovers an abandoned baby girl in his plane.

It's the story of Casey's life -- she finally finds a man who can make her curl her toes... and he's the enemy. Steve's glances set her on fire, his teasing makes her go weak. And the sexy-as-sin bachelor's tender care of baby Annie is causing Casey to yearn for a 'happily-ever-after.' But once they find Annie's mother, will Steve take Casey to bed -- or put her out of business?
