Brent Soderstrum says

God wants us to prosper in all areas of our lives. He also wants us to trust Him and put our financial decisions in His hands. We also need to give back to God 10% (tithe) of what He has already given us. If we do this we will be blessed.

I agree with all Stanley sets out. He gets it right out of the Bible. Now implementing it is tough. I have learned over the years that I am way too self sufficient or at least I view myself that way. Putting my finances in anyone's hands, even God's, is not an easy thing for me. God often speaks to us in areas we need to address and I think this is one for me. I need to trust God and get ready to receive His blessings.

Fairly easy read. Was looking for a good, balanced, biblical view of finances. Seems like most messages on money/prosperity are pretty out of balance these days. Wanted another view. Stanley, I think, is right on...its biblical...has to do with faith, scripture, but isn't in the "ditch"!! I read it on my own...but I think its meant for a group. Would be great material for a study group!
