Fox Lake District Library says

The kids at Radical Readers all whipped through this book very fast. They all agreed that this would be a great book for a first or second grader. At the book club we discussed what to do when someone is being a bully, how to be a good leader like Jessie was, and about the Olympics. After this we had our own snowball stacking contest with marshmallows (Yum!) and we made an Olympic torch for our craft.

Ella says

It's a pretty good story and it goes in the Winter Olympics.

Freddy`s made ANOTHER bet with Max, the biggest bully in the class, on the first grade winter Olympics. So, Freddy has to learn how to walk in snowshoes, FAST!! He feels as if his friends would just laugh at him the whole way down, until he shows real sportsmanship and helps Max when he falls, and then Freddy is able to pull it off, room three wins the First Grade Winter Olympics!

Melissa Namba says

A cute book for kids about a school winter competition. I liked that good sportsmanship was emphasized as well as highlighting that different people have different skills.

Seth says

Freddy helped max up on the snow shoe race! Freddy's class was doing olympics! Freddy's class won the Olympics!

Kael says

This book made me think of snow. And it made me think of dragons, since Freddy's breath looked like dragon smoke. I learned from this book to practice when you need to.

Jason says

I think that this book will show good sportsmanship.
